

A photograph of a sunset over a rocky beach. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the center of the upper half of the frame, casting a warm, orange and yellow light across the sky and the water. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds. In the foreground, several dark, jagged rocks are scattered across the sandy beach, some partially submerged in the shallow water. The water is calm, reflecting the light from the sun. A large, dark rectangular box is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the quote in white text. Below the quote, a smaller pink rectangular box contains the name 'Eleanor Roosevelt'. At the bottom center, there is a small, faint logo for 'quotefancy'.

Do One Thing Every Day That Scares You A Journal:

Do One Thing Every Day That Scares You Robie Rogge, Dian G. Smith, 2013-12-31 A year's worth of fear facing prompts and mottoes of encouragement will motivate you to jot down one thing a day and make a daily habit of thinking courageously. Each day is an opportunity to perform one small act of bravery: singing out loud, asking for help, admitting a mistake, pitching an idea, accepting a compliment, changing your hair, going for the prize, failing spectacularly, and trying again. This journal contains a year's worth of fear facing prompts and mottoes of encouragement. It provides space to jot down daily examples of your own courage, the small steps that culminate in one bold year. Jotting down one thing a day, especially on fortifying subjects like gratitude and happiness, is an enormously popular journaling practice, one that is recommended by nearly every best-selling self-help author. Bravery is another key ingredient of self-actualization, so why not make a daily habit of thinking courageously?
