Er Valt Voor Recht Te Strijden:

The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom-Eric Krijger, 2019-09-16 In The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom Eric Krijger is the first to offer a synthesis of the development of the Protestant modernist movement in Dutch religious social cultural and political life between 1870 and 1940 In historiography the liberal Protestant community is said to have lost appeal and influence in these decades due to a lack of theological clarity inner harmony and organisation Analysing liberal Protestants self perception vis vis Christian orthodoxy self understanding as a faith community attitude towards other alternatives to orthodoxy class consciousness literary criticism political commitment and involvement with foreign mission Krijger challenges this view Making an international comparison he argues that the Dutch modernist movement failed to make headway primarily due to liberal Protestant expectations and discourse

Charismatic Leadership and Social Movements Jan Willem Stutje, 2012-08-15 Much of the writing on charisma focuses on specific traits associated with exceptional leaders a practice that has broadened the concept of charisma to such an extent that it loses its distinctiveness and therefore its utility More particularly the concept s relevance to the study of social movements has not moved beyond generalizations The contributors to this volume renew the debate on charismatic leadership from a historical perspective and seek to illuminate the concept s relevance to the study of social movements The case studies here include such leaders as Mahatma Gandhi the architect of apartheid Daniel F Malan the heroine of the Spanish Civil War Dolores Ibarruri la pasionaria and Mao Zedong These charismatic leaders were not just professional politicians or administrators but sustained a strong symbiotic relationship with their followers one that stimulated devotion to the leader and created a real group identity
