Eschatology And Hope Theology In Global Perspective Theology In Global Perspectives:

Globalization, Spirituality, and Justice Revised Edition Daniel G. Groody, 2015-10-15 A theological reading of globalization and a global reading of theology This book offers a rigorously critical and yet inspiring vision of justice as an integral part of Christian spirituality in our complex globalized world At the same time Daniel Groody's analysis draws on the conviction that faith and spirituality have an integral role in the struggle to achieve a more just social order Eschatology and Hope

Anthony Kelly, 2006 This text offers an introduction to the central theme of Christian eschatology the doctrine and study of what Christians hope for as they follow the Way taught by the prophets and saints and above all opened up in the paschal mystery of Jesus of Nazareth Hoping for life after death a sage once said is not a particularly religious action Here Anthony Kelly examines the concept of hope in general and how eschatology enlarges the scope of what humans anticipate in ways that transcend mere continuation of life after life Kelly helps the reader see that Christian hope involves much more than hope for personal immortality

Luther's View of Purgatory Min Hwan Kim, 2025-07-21 This study addresses what has been a previously unexamined subject in Luther scholarship and presents how Luther reinterprets the concept of purgatory in line with his biblical and theological insight The book gives the background of the development of the doctrine of purgatory particularly of penitential theology as well as a brief summary of Luther's so-called Reformation breakthrough Furthermore it explicates how in the Explanations of the Ninety Five Theses 1518 Luther articulates the notion of purgatory within the framework of justification by faith alone and the theology of the cross So this book demonstrates the way a minor subject in Luther purgatory interacts with his major theological subjects justification and the theology of the cross Careful analysis helps readers follow Luther's way of thinking in the course of the Reformation Perspectives in Pentecostal

Eschatologies Peter Althouse, Robby Waddell, 2010-09-08 During the mid twentieth century Pentecostal theology was co-opted by fundamentalism and its dispensational brand of millennial eschatology Fundamentalist dispensationalism not only reinterpreted the original Pentecostal vision of the latter rain outpouring of the Spirit in the last days but undercut its raison d'être as a people empowered by the Spirit of Pentecost to participate in the kingdom of God Yet eschatology is much broader than twentieth century dispensationalism and Pentecostal eschatology is diverse reflecting the diversity of Pentecostal and Charismatic spiritualities There is no one Pentecostal eschatology but many Pentecostal eschatologies This collection of essays from established scholars and rising stars offers fresh perspectives in eschatology for the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements The fresh readings of eschatology in this volume are valuable because they demonstrate that Pentecostals no longer need to look to others to interpret their theology for them but can stand as scholars and thinkers in their own right Shaping a Global Theological Mind Darren C. Marks, 2008 Theological thinkers are placed into contexts which inform their theological tasks but that context is usually limited to a European or North American centre usually ignoring minorities and lesser mainstream theologies even in that context This work focuses on the shift of Christian theological thinking from the North Atlantic to the Global South even within the North Atlantic Church and Academy It gives a Global perspective on theological work method and context Theologians from North America Great Britain and Europe Africa Asia Central and South America comment on how their specific context and methodology manifests organizes and is prioritized in their thought so as to make Christian theology relevant to their community By placing the Global South alongside the newly emerging presence of non traditional Western forms such as Pentecostal Aboriginal and Hispanic theologies and theologians a clearer picture of how Christian theology is both enculturated and still familial is offered
