The Secret Despair of the Secular Left Ana Levy-Lyons, 2025-06-10 A compelling and timely exploration of the spiritual void in modernity and an invitation to reclaim a more connected and spiritually fulfilling way of life What is lost when we lose our religion Our traditions Connection and community In The Secret Despair of the Secular Left Ana Levy Lyons seeks to find out Levy Lyons a rabbinical student with a previous 18 year career as a Unitarian Universalist minister shares insights into what goes missing when we lose our religious underpinnings and deeply held beliefs and practices Drawing from a wide range of perspectives including Jewish Christian and eastern religious traditions Indigenous societies and countercultural communities Levy Lyons aims to understand the sources of our modern despair and help readers find pathways of healing and reconnection Levy Lyons investigates three primary losses in today's world disconnection dislocation and disembodiment Disconnection refers to the loss of ties to community and each other in a world dominated by virtual interactions and polarizing social media Dislocation is our separation from the earth and our intrinsic relationship with the land and our roots Finally disembodiment finds us alienated from our physical selves and our spiritual essence In a society increasingly detached from our essential nature we have forgotten the profound knowledge and wisdom that our bodies hold When we realize what we've lost we experience deep grief But in exploring and understanding these losses we are also self empowered to reclaim pathways to more connected grounded and spirit filled lives
