Retelling Stories, Framing Culture John Stephens, Robyn McCallum, 2013-01-11 What happens to traditional stories when they are retold in another time and cultural context and for a different audience This first of its kind study discusses Bible stories classical myths heroic legends Arthurian romances Robin Hood lore folk tales oriental tales and other stories derived from European cultures One chapter is devoted to various retellings of classics from Shakespeare to Wind in the Willows The authors offer a general theory of what motivates the retelling of stories and how stories express the aspirations of a society An important function of stories is to introduce children to a cultural heritage and to transmit a body of shared allusions and experiences that expresses a society's central values and assumptions However the cultural heritage may be modified through a pervasive tendency of retellings to produce socially conservative outcomes because of ethnocentric androcentric and class based assumptions in the source stories that persist into retellings Therefore some stories such as classical myths are particularly resistant to feminist reinterpretations for example while other types such as folktales are more malleable In examining such possibilities the book evaluates the processes of interpretation apparent in retellings Index included

Marsh,2021-04-12 This book presents a new analysis of Aristotle s concept of narrative in the Poetics Arguing that the term muthos in the Poetics cannot be understood as equivalent to plot Marsh shows that the muthos concept is instead a useful tool for grouping larger sets of narratives based on specific criteria The results of this muthos analysis indicate that in the classical period neither formal structure nor the structure of events was determined by theatrical genre but by the specific combination of tone and plot type Marsh concludes that the category of genre itself may be less helpful for classifying these plays than is typically assumed Essential Fiction, Stage 3 Pearson Education,Sylvia Karavis,2004-03 A complete solution for literacy at Key Stage 2 In the Beginning ,1984 A Handbook of Children's Literature, Methods and Materials Emelyn Elizabeth Gardner,Eloise Ramsey,1927 The Beginner's Guide to Constructing the Universe Michael S. In the Beginning Bernard F. Batto,2013-05-01 Bernard F Batto spent the bulk of his career examining the ancient Near Eastern context of the Hebrew Bible with particular interest in the influence of the surrounding cultures on the biblical creation stories This collection gathers six of his most important previously published essays and adds two new contributions Among the essays Batto identifies various creation motifs prevalent in the ancient Near East and investigates the reflexes of these motifs in Genesis 1 11 and other biblical accounts of the primeval period He demonstrates how the biblical writers adapted and responded to the creation ideas of Mesopotamia Egypt Ugarit and elsewhere The articles in the volume were written as independent essays Nevertheless they are united by theme Throughout Batto makes clear his understanding of the Hebrew Bible as a patently unique text yet one that cannot possibly be understood independent of greater cultural sphere in which it developed In the Beginning will serve as an indispensable resource for those interested in both the biblical ideas of creation and the mythology of the ancient Near East that influenced them
