

The image features two dolls, likely from the Dollfie series, dressed in elaborate gothic romance outfits. The doll on the left is a male figure with short black hair, wearing glasses, a dark red and black patterned vest over a white shirt, and black leather pants. The doll on the right is a female figure with long black hair adorned with a red flower, wearing a dark, high-collared dress with a long, flowing red skirt. The background is a simple, light-colored wall with a vertical seam. The text "DRESS TO IMPRESS" and "GOTHIC ROMANCE" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font with a drop shadow effect.

Wonder-Full Education Kieran Egan, Annabella I. Cant, Gillian Judson, 2013-07-24 For many children much of the time their experience in classrooms can be rather dull and yet the world the school is supposed to initiate children into is full of wonder This book offers a rich understanding of the nature and roles of wonder in general and provides multiple suggestions for to how to revive wonder in adults teachers and curriculum makers and how to keep it alive in children Its aim is to show that adequate education needs to take seriously the task of evoking wonder about the content of the curriculum and to show how this can routinely be done in everyday classrooms The authors do not wax flowery they present strong arguments based on either research or precisely described experience and demonstrate how this argument can be seen to work itself out in daily practice The emphasis is not on ways of evoking wonder that might require virtuoso teaching but rather on how wonder can be evoked about the everyday features of the math or science or social studies curriculum in
