goal-line and the goal itself to set yourself up for this kind of cross. The image below illustrates this approach.

As you can see, the Manchester City left defender has just been dribbled past by our crosser here. The player making a slide tackle illustrates how difficult it is to stop a winger who has crossed this estranged outside defender. He has had more than enough time to get to this position we're talking about. From here, a driven or grounded cross would either result in a direct goal, a goal from scraps, or a serious chance. If you're unfamiliar with this kind of tactic, try this out in the practice arena a few times to get the hang of it.
