With this series, Tredition intends to make thousands of international literature classics available in printed format again worldwide.

Fragmenta Regalia

Robert Naunton, 2016-12-21

Excerpt from Fragmenta Regalia: Memoirs of Elizabeth Her Court and Favourites. Earl dated February 1, 1596, speaks of himself with great modesty. For state affairs, says he, I may not soar so high. And in giving an account of a conversation between himself and Perez, and of some enquiries of the latter, he says my answer is that I am but a stranger as yet to your honour, far unworthy to be so familiarly inward with your lordship. Mr Naunton returned to England soon afterwards, probably with Antonio Perez, and in May following Essex wrote the following letter to him, apparently from the fleet which was then about sailing on the Cadiz expedition.
