Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green,David I. Starling,2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36:9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth Theology of Revelation Domenic Marbaniang, 2012-12-21 The book is a study of the theology of revelation in the writings of seven modern theologians viz Charles Hodge Karl Barth Emil Brunner Harold DeWolf Millard J Erickson J Rodman Williams and Donald G Bloesch It also includes a concluding chapter by the author on the theology of revelation

Chung, 2010-04-15 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God's mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God's narrative as it pertains to the realities of public sphere Paul Chung maintains that mission serves the Word of God which is revealed in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit for all It is salient to develop a theology of Trinitarian mission through the perspective of God's living word event in a hermeneutical intercultural fashion Here a Trinitarian concept of missio Dei is deepened and refurbished in light of God as the Subject of speaking through Israel the church and the face of innocent victims and religious outsiders This perspective contextualizes and widens the mission of God's narrative and deepens its universality in light of the word event An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J.

Trinity, Revelation, and Reading Scott R. Swain, 2011-09-15 Trinity Revelation and Reading TRR is a theological introduction to the Bible and biblical interpretation The overarching thesis is that neither the Bible nor biblical hermeneutics can be understood or practiced properly apart from an appreciation of their relationship to the triune God and his gracious economy of redemption Scott Swain treats the role of the Word in the saving economy of the triune God the role and status of Scripture as the Word of God the nature of biblical reading as a covenantal enterprise as well as a host of other related topics These topics are addressed by way of a constructive appropriation or ressourcement of many of the themes of patristic theology and early Protestant divinity esp Reformed Orthodoxy while building upon the work of important contemporary theologians as well e g Karl Barth John Webster Kevin Vanhoozer The ultimate goal of this study is that readers will appreciate better the ways in which biblical interpretation is an aspect of their covenantal engagement with the triune God

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher
