Bruehler, 2016-09-02 Engaging resources for understanding the importance of bodies and spaces in producing and interpreting persuasive language This volume collects essays that represent intellectual milestones that are informing sociorhetorical interpretation during the twenty first century The essays are arranged into five parts 1 Topos 2 Cultural Geography and Critical Spatiality 3 Rhetorolects and Conceptual Blending 4 Rhetography and 5 Rhetorical Force Features Tools for integrating multiple approaches to biblical interpretation Resources that emphasize the importance of language that prompts mental pictures in effective rhetoric Essays from classicists rhetoricians and biblical scholars Biblical Exegesis in African Context Frederick Mawusi Amevenku, Isaac Boaheng, 2021-09-07 Biblical Exegesis in African Context explores how the Church in Africa can affirm its uniqueness in terms of the African identity and experiences and at the same time remain faithful to the gospel message The volume begins with an explanation of exegesis and hermeneutics and the agenda for the rest of the book is set The second chapter deals with textual criticism which is the task of determining the originality of a biblical text In chapter three issues related to the context of the text are considered after which the volume proceeds to examine the various literary forms present in the Bible prominent among them being Narrative Law Poetry Prophecy Wisdom Literature Gospels Acts of the Apostles Epistles and Revelation The authors then dedicate the next chapter to discussions on socio rhetorical interpretation The final chapters of the book deal with matters solely related to the context of Africa this part intends to equip readers to be able to interpret the Bible from African cultural perspectives and then apply the gospel message meaningfully to the life of African Christians Chapter seven deals with the emergence and historical development of African Biblical Studies ABS noting its relevance and how Africans can benefit from it The main contention of the chapter is that Africans will better understand and apply God s word to their lives if they read the Scriptures in an African way The volume then explores how African languages can be used to derive the meaning of scripture and apply it to real life situations Here the authors contribute to the development of MTBH by developing a methodological framework for this interpretative tool The next chapter of the volume deals with mother tongue theologizing in Ghana The final chapter considers the legitimacy of female leadership in the Church within the African context through the examination of two Pauline texts This volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate seminary students students of Biblical Interpretation in religions departments as well as practicing pastors

Reading James with New Eyes Robert L. Webb, John S. Kloppenborg, 2007-03-15 The letters of James 1 and 2 Peter and Jude are among the most neglected letters of the New Testament Thus methodological advances in New Testament study tend to arise among the Gospels or Pauline letters But now these letters are beginning to receive increased attention in the scholarly community Reading James With New Eyes is the first of four volumes that incorporate new research in this area The essays collected here examine the impact of recent methodological developments in New Testament studies to the letter of James including for example rhetorical social scientific socio rhetorical ideological and hermeneutical methods as they contribute to understanding James and its social context Each essay has a similar three fold structure making them perfect for use by students a description of the methodological approach the application of the methodological approach to James and a conclusion identifying how the methodological approach contributes to a fresh understanding of the letter

Kevin Jaques, 2006 This book looks at abq t al fuqah al sh fi yah by Ibn Q Shuhbah d 851 1448 and how its author attempted to portray the development of the Sh fi school of law up to his own times The volume examines the impact of crises on the formation of the abq t genre It demonstrates how abq t dedicated to explicating religious authority were used by authors to sort out challenges to intellectual orthodoxies It also examines in detail the abq t

directly demonstrating Ibn Q Shuhbah s depiction of the development of Sh fi law the formation of intellectual sub schools within the madhhab the causes of legal decline and curatives for the decline that are to be found in the great Sh fi Ikhtil f divergent opinion texts the Az z shar al waj z by al R fi and the Raw t al lib n by al Nawaw      From Fast to Feast Cas Wepener,2009 Today some years after the first democratic elections in South Africa as well as the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC it is clear that reconciliation is still needed on all terrains of South African society More and more people are becoming aware of unchanneled emotions such as guilt fury revenge and grief which are still alive in South Africa and which come to fore in different ways It seems as if reconciliation is a process that will in fact take years if not generations The task of the TRC has been completed but the task of reconciliation on all levels in South African society and the debate surrounding it are far from complete Very little research has been conducted to understand both the process and the kinds of reconciliation rituals that are needed And this is exactly the aim of the research described in this book The research described here aims at making a contribution towards the process of reconciliation in South Africa by specifically looking at one small but important element in that process namely ritual To this end several ritual probes were conducted including an ethnographic probe describing research by means of participatory observation in local South African communities as well as a cultural anthropological biblical historical and descriptive probe From these probes ritual qualities were distilled which can be used for the liturgical inculturation of rituals of reconciliation in South Africa      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001      And I Turned to See the Voice Edith McEwan Humphrey,2007 Demonstrates how New Testament vision accounts conveyed and reinforced messages meant to impact hearers and readers
