Extradition In Multilateral Treaties And Conventions Studies On The Law Of Treaties:

Extradition in Multilateral Treaties And Conventions Isidoro Zanotti, 2006 This work provides indispensable access to an intricate and complex network of legal rules on extradition found in multilateral treaties and conventions with specific emphasis on extradition in the Americas The materials compiled in this volume give a welcome insight in the codification of law and constitute a fundamental tool for judicial cooperation in the Inter American context Research Handbook on International Criminal Law Bartram S. Brown, 2011-01-01 This timely valuable and thought provoking contribution to our understanding of the vibrant new subject that is international criminal law is a great addition to the literature and to our understanding Professor Bart Brown deserves real appreciation for bringing it together Philippe Sands QC University College London and Matrix Chambers UK The Research Handbook is a comprehensive up to date guide to one of the youngest yet most dynamic areas of international law It tackles the pertinent challenges and opportunities starting with the classical issues like categories of international crimes and complementarity going on to address the problems ahead including the Guantamo regime crimes against women and the status of private security contractors The Handbook will be a valuable source for both general and advanced international criminal law research James Crawford Cambridge University UK This carefully regarded and well structured handbook covers the broad range of norms practices policies processes and institutional mechanisms of international criminal law exploring how they operate and continue to develop in a variety of contexts Leading scholars in the field and experienced practitioners have brought together their expertise and perspectives in a clear and concise fashion to create an authoritative resource which will be useful and accessible even to those without legal training The Research Handbook on International Criminal Law will appeal to practitioners who may want to defend or prosecute international criminal law cases and academics researching and writing on international criminal law Graduate students studying international criminal law international human rights or international humanitarian law as well as those studying international justice international politics international organization or public policy analysis will also find this book invaluable The Role of Domestic Courts in Treaty Enforcement David Sloss, 2009-10-12 This book examines the application of treaties by domestic courts in twelve countries The central question is whether domestic courts actually provide remedies to private parties who are harmed by a violation of their treaty based rights The analysis shows that domestic courts in eight of the twelve countries Australia Canada Germany India the Netherlands Poland South Africa and the United Kingdom generally do enforce treaty based rights on behalf of private parties On the other hand the evidence is mixed for the other four countries China Israel Russia and the United States In China Israel and Russia the trends are moving in the direction of greater judicial enforcement of treaties on behalf of private parties The United States is the only country surveyed where the trend is moving in the opposite direction U S courts reluctance to enforce treaty based rights undermines efforts to develop a more cooperative global order Commentary on the Second Geneva Convention

,2017-12-21 The application and interpretation of the four Geneva Conventions of 1949 have developed significantly in the sixty years since the International Committee of the Red Cross ICRC first published its Commentaries on these important humanitarian treaties To promote a better understanding of and respect for this body of law the ICRC commissioned a comprehensive update of its original Commentaries of which this is the second volume Its preparation was coordinated by Jean Marie Henckaerts ICRC legal adviser and head of the project to update the Commentaries The Second Convention is a key text of international humanitarian law It contains the essential rules on the protection of the wounded sick and shipwrecked at sea those assigned to their care and the vessels used for their treatment and evacuation This article by article Commentary takes into account developments in the law and practice to provide up to date interpretations of the Convention The new Commentary has been reviewed by humanitarian law practitioners and academics from around the world including naval experts It is an essential tool for anyone working or studying within this field International Anti-Money

Laundering and Soft Law Emmanuel Ebikake,2023-11-16 Adopting a mixed methods approach this book assesses the role of soft law as a technique to repress and prevent money laundering The consequence of the combination of a non traditional subject matter with the limitations of traditional international law instruments has meant that lawmakers seeking international solutions to the problems of money laundering have had to innovate This book addresses two fundamental issues in the context of existing international and domestic responses to the problem of money laundering that have hitherto been neglected These include the nature of the treaty obligations to criminalise money laundering and the role of soft law as a technique to regulate it globally The book concludes that international legal harmonisation and approximation of domestic anti money laundering law through soft law remains helpful in addressing this pressing problem The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Financial Crime Anti Money Laundering Law Regulation International Soft Law and Comparative Law Excel HSC Legal Studies Belinda Brassil,2004 Asian Yearbook of
