Eye Of The Century Film Experience Modernity Film And Culture Series:

Eye of the Century Francesco Casetti, 2008 Acclaimed film scholar Francesco Casetti situates the cinematic experience within discourses of 20th century modernity He suggests that film defined a unique gaze not only because it recorded many of the centuries most important events but also because it determined the manner in which they were received

Hollywood Lighting from the Silent Era to Film Noir Patrick Keating, 2009-11-22 Lighting performs essential functions in Hollywood films enhancing the glamour clarifying the action and intensifying the mood Examining every facet of this understated art form from the glowing backlights of the silent period to the shaded alleys of film noir Patrick Keating affirms the role of Hollywood lighting as a distinct compositional force Closely analyzing Girl Shy 1924 Anna Karenina 1935 Only Angels Have Wings 1939 and T Men 1947 along with other brilliant classics Keating describes the unique problems posed by these films and the innovative ways cinematographers handled the challenge Once dismissed as crank turning laborers these early cinematographers became skillful professional artists by carefully balancing the competing demands of story studio and star Enhanced by more than one hundred illustrations this volume counters the notion that style took a backseat to storytelling in Hollywood film proving that the lighting practices of the studio era were anything but neutral uniform and invisible Cinematographers were masters of multifunctionality and negotiation honing their craft to achieve not only realistic fantasy but also pictorial artistry

Shivers Down Your Spine Alison Griffiths, 2013-04-23 From the architectural spectacle of the medieval cathedral and the romantic sublime of the nineteenth century panorama to the techno fetishism of today's London Science Museum humans have gained a deeper understanding of the natural world through highly illusionistic representations that engender new modes of seeing listening and thinking What unites and defines many of these wondrous spaces is an immersive view an invitation to step inside the virtual world of the image and become a part of its universe if only for a short time Since their inception museums of science and natural history have mixed education and entertainment often to incredible eye opening effect Immersive spaces of visual display and modes of exhibition send shivers down our spines engaging the distinct cognitive and embodied mapping skills we bring to spectacular architecture and illusionistic media They also force us to reconsider traditional models of film spectatorship in the context of a mobile and interactive spectator Through a series of detailed historical case studies Alison Griffiths masterfully explores the uncanny and unforgettable visceral power of the medieval cathedral the panorama the planetarium the IMAX theater and the science museum Examining these structures as exemplary spaces of immersion and interactivity Griffiths reveals the sometimes surprising antecedents of modern media forms suggesting the spectator's deep seated desire to become immersed in a virtual world Shivers Down Your Spine demonstrates how immersive and interactive museum display techniques such as large video displays reconstructed environments and touch screen computer interactives have redefined the museum space fueling the opposition between public and private science and spectacle civic and corporate interests voice and text and life and death In her remarkable study of sensual spaces Griffiths explains why for centuries we keep coming back for more

The Emergence of Film Culture Malte Hagener,2014-09-01 Between the two world wars a distinct and vibrant film culture emerged in Europe Film festivals and schools were established film theory and history was written that took cinema seriously as an art form and critical writing that created the film canon flourished This scene was decidedly transnational and creative overcoming traditional boundaries between theory and practice and between national and linguistic borders This new European film culture established film as a valid form of social expression as an art form and as a political force to be reckoned with By examining the extraordinarily rich and creative uses of cinema in the interwar period we can examine the roots of film culture as we know it today The New Lives of Images Adrian J. Ivakhiv,2025-09-30 In this ambitious new work eco philosopher and cultural theorist Adrian Ivakhiv presents an incisive new way of thinking about images and imagination Drawing upon an immense range of materials Ivakhiv reassesses the place of imagination in cultural life analyzing how people have interacted with images in the past and the ways that digital media are profoundly altering these relationships today The book contributes powerfully to the study of visual culture and digital media and provides provocative interpretations of a range of important artists and media movements from the work of photographer Edward Burtynsky the ambitious multi screen installations of John Akomfrah the abstract art of Swedish spiritualist Hilma af Klint and the Afrofuturism of jazz musicians like Sun Ra and poet Alexis Pauline Gumbs to the ever expanding universe of animal videos on YouTube Along the way the book delves into animacy and religious imagery iconophilia and iconoclasm divination and prophecy truthiness and enchantment networks online communities and artificial intelligence the political and affective economies of digital media and the role of utopian futurism in the present climate colonial Anthropocene predicament The result is a vital contribution toward a more empowering conception of the creative imagination and its possibilities in today s emerging digital ecology Choice ,2008 The Lumière Galaxy Francesco Casetti,2015-03-03 Francesco Casetti believes new media technologies are producing an exciting new era in cinema aesthetics Whether we experience film in the theater on our hand held devices in galleries and museums onboard and in flight or up in the clouds in the bits we download cinema continues to alter our habits and excite our imaginations Casetti travels from the remote corners of film history and theory to the most surprising sites on the internet and in our cities to prove the ongoing relevance of cinema He does away with traditional notions of canon repetition apparatus and spectatorship in favor of new keywords including expansion relocation assemblage and performance The result is an innovative understanding of cinema s place in our lives and culture along with a critical sea change in the study of the art The more the nature of cinema transforms the more it discovers its own identity and Casetti helps readers realize the galaxy of possibilities embedded in the medium Leisure, Recreation, and Tourism Abstracts ,2009 American Independent John Berra,2010 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American society Copious illustrations and a range of research resources round out the volume making this a truly comprehensive guide At a time when independent films are enjoying considerable cultural cachet this easy to use yet authoritative guide will find an eager audience in media historians film studies scholars and movie buffs alike Film 1900 Klaus Kreimeier, Annemone Ligensa, 2009-10-05 The current digital revolution has sparked a renewed interest in the origins and trajectory of modern media particularly in the years around 1900 when the technology was rapidly developing This collection aims to broaden our understanding of early cinema as a significant innovation in media history Joining traditional scholarship with fresh insights from a variety of disciplines this book explains the aesthetic and institutional characteristics in early cinema within the context of the contemporary media landscape It also addresses transcultural developments such as scientific revolutions industrialization urbanization and globalization as well as differing attitudes toward modernization Film 1900 is an important reassessment of early cinema's position in cultural history Making Home Minette Hillyer, 2006 A Modern Mosaic Townsend Ludington, 2000 Modern Mosaic Art and Modernism in the United States Nka, 2001 Kongreßschrift Leonardo Quaresima, Laura Vichi, 2001 CMP Bulletin, 1985 IRIS, 1998 Material Culture in America Helen Sheumaker, 2008 You can tell a lot about people by looking at their stuff the things they make process and value That is the idea that drives the field of material culture in which scholars explore the meaning of objects of a given society This book is the first encyclopedia to look at the study of material culture and what it reveals about life in the United States Jacket American Photo, 2000 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2008 Cities in Transition Andrew Webber, Emma Wilson, 2008 Cities in Transition looks at the complex yet enduring relationship between cinema and the city discussing how early cinema digital technology and changing urban geographies have all impacted upon notions and representations of the modern city
