Explorations In The Sociology Of Consumption Fast Food Credit Cards And Casinos:

Explorations in the Sociology of Consumption George Ritzer, 2001-04-11 In this book one of the leading social theorists and cultural commentators of modern times turns his gaze on consumption George Ritzer author of the famous McDonaldization Thesis demonstrates the irrational consequences of the rational desire to consume and commodify He examines how McDonaldization might be resisted and situates the reader in the new cultural spaces that are emerging in society shopping malls casino hotels Disneyfied theme parks and Las Vegas the new cathedrals of consumption as he calls them The book shows how new processes of consumption relate to globalization theory In illuminating discussions of the work of Thorstein Veblen and the French situationists Ritzer unearths the roots of problems of consumption in older sociological traditions He indicates how transgression is bound up with consumption through an investigation of the obscene in popular and postmodern culture

Fast Food/slow Food Richard R. Wilk, 2006 Wilk and his colleagues draw upon their own international field experience to examine how food systems are changing around the globe The authors offer a cultural perspective that is missing in other economic and developmental studies and provide rich ethnographic data on markets industrial production and food economies This new book will appeal to professionals in economic and environmental anthropology economic development agricultural economics consumer behavior nutritional sciences environmental sustainability and globalization studies

A Debtor World Ralph Brubaker, Robert M. Lawless, Charles J. Tabb, 2012-11-15 A Debtor World contains a collection of contributions about the societal implications of private debt The essays comprising this volume are authored by dozens of leading U S and international academics who have written about debt or issues related to debt in a wide range of disciplines including law sociology psychology history economics and more The goal of this collection is to explore debt neither as a problem nor a solution but as a phenomenon and to promote the exchange of knowledge to better comprehend why consumers and businesses decide to borrow money It asks what happens to businesses and consumers under a heavy debt load and what legal norms and institutions societies need to encourage the efficient use of debt while promoting a greater understanding of the global phenomenon of increased indebtedness and societal dependence

The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities Mary Romero, Eric Margolis, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities is a first rate collection of social science scholarship on inequalities emphasizing race ethnicity class gender sexuality age and nationality Highlights themes that represent the scope and range of theoretical orientations contemporary emphases and emerging topics in the field of social inequalities Gives special attention to debates in the field developing trends and directions and interdisciplinary influences in the study of social inequalities Includes an editorial introduction and suggestions for further reading

Enchanting a Disenchanted World George Ritzer, 2005 Megamalls Restaurant chains Elaborate casinos Deluxe cruise ships Enormous theme parks Everywhere we turn there is a new place being constructed in which to spend money The Second Edition of Enchanting a Disenchanted World Revolutionizing the

Means of Consumption examines the development of these settings and many others like them in the last half century Author George Ritzer takes a look at how a revolutionary change has occurred in the places in which we consume goods and services and how it has a profound effect not only on the nature of consumption but also on social life In the process of taking capitalism to a new level we have created new cathedrals of consumption locales to which we make pilgrimages in order to practice our consumer religion The book offers rich detail on consuming in places such as Las Vegas Disney World cruise ships Wal Mart and McDonald s all competing to outdo one another to see which one can put on the greatest show and lure the most consumers Enchanting a Disenchanted World is a unique analysis of the world of consumption examining how we are different consumers now than we were in the past both in the U S and around the world In the process of understanding this social development a wide range of theoretical perspectives including Marxian Weberian critical theory and postmodern theory are applied The book also looks at concepts such as hyperconsumption implosion time and space and simulation

Academic Capitalism and the New Economy Sheila Slaughter,Gary Rhoades,2004-09-24 Defining the terms of academic capitalism in the new economy this study offers insights into the trajectory of American higher education Jacket

Space Odysseys Jørgen Ole Bærenholdt,Kirsten Simonsen,2017-05-15 The nature of spatial imaginations has become central to a range of major social and political debates Narratives on spatial inequality from the North South divide in global economic and political visions to marginalisation and ghettoisation in Western cities appear regularly in our daily newspapers Such examples indicate that issues of space spatiality are as crucial in our current societies as never before Space Odysseys brings together leading social scientists including John Urry and Derek Gregory to address a number of central issues in spatiality and social relations in the early 21st century Starting from the presupposition that space is a social dimension and a social construct it then presents examples of these conceptions of space at work While the book title s indirect reference to the film 2001 A Space Odyssey indicates the contributors interest in questions of voyages and mobility the plural use shows that the approaches to this conceptual exploration are multiple reflecting differences in experience in social context and or in gender class and ethnicity The book is divided into three main sections The first explores issues of mobility immobility and embodied narratives the second section deals with territoriality mobility and identity politics and the final section concludes with chapters on the spatial production of knowledge

The Globalization of Nothing 2 George Ritzer,2007-01-18 The Globalization of Nothing is back in a revised and completely updated edition with an even greater emphasis on the processes of globalization and how they relate to McDonaldization As before this book is structured around four sets of concepts addressing the issues of places non places things non things people non people and services non services By drawing upon salient examples from everyday life George Ritzer invites the reader to examine the nuances of these concepts in conjunction with the paradoxes within the process of the globalization of nothing Critical questions are raised throughout and the reader is compelled not only to seek answers to these questions but also to critically evaluate the questions as well as their answers

New to This Edition Features a greater emphasis on the main topic of globalization A new first chapter offers an introductory overview of globalization and globalization theory outlining the unique ways in which these topics are addressed throughout the text Offers a new way to conceptualize and theorize about globalization This edition delves into two subprocesses of globalization glocalization and grobalization Provides a new way to think about consumer culture and globalization New material is presented on consumer culture and its globalization as well as on the role of branding Uses a nontechnical and accessible style with many global examples The examples in this book are drawn from everyday life and a global consumer culture that are readily recognizable to students Shorter and more concise in response to reviewer feedback Intended Audience This text can be used in a variety of courses focusing on the principles of sociology social change social theory globalization consumerism and the global economy in sociology departments as well as in related courses in departments of political science or economics Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award

Muslim Societies in the Age of Mass Consumption Johanna Pink, 2009 The papers in this anthology present innovative approaches to a wide range of issues that have so far barely received scholarly attention The topics range from the changing spaces of consumption to Islamic branding from the marketing of religious music to the consumption patterns of Muslim minority groups

McDonaldization of Higher Education Dennis Hayes, Robin Wynyard, 2002-08-30 Where not so long ago professors owned the tools of scholarship controlled the labor process and certified the quality of our product the process of McDonaldization has torn this relation asunder Rapidly increasing student faculty ratios mass classes and the use of low wage teaching assistants and adjunct faculty have changed the job of professor pp 64 ff Faculty are pressured to recruit and retain students seen as customers p 67 and to compete with private for profit End Page 368 universities pp 71 72 With declining government aid for higher education students increasingly see education as a form of consumption and demand control choice and edutainment p 64 and elsewhere This is seen most obviously in course evaluations which some of the authors refer to as customer satisfaction surveys pp 36 132 147 At the same time faculty are relentlessly pushed to publish engage in funded research and develop new technological competencies Control over product is threatened as universities make demands on ownership of intellectual property including patents and licenses publications and courseware pp 79 81 From the perspective of faculty McDonaldization represents a dramatic loss of pedagogical authority Simultaneously the state which still pays for much of the cost of education as a public good is increasing demands for accountability and standards This takes the form of schemes for standardizing promotion and tenure quantifying and measuring the product being delivered and attempting to assure quality Challenge, 2006 Consuming Cultures, Global Perspectives John Brewer, Frank Trentmann, 2006-06 A transnational perspective allows the authors to investigate the diversity of consumer cultures and the interaction between them They look at the genealogy of the modern consumer and the development of consumer cultures McDonaldization George Ritzer,2006-01-31 The Second Edition of this bestselling Reader has been expanded to include interviews with important recent contributors to the understanding of McDonaldization Morgan Spurlock Supersize Me and Eric Schlosser Fast Food Nation McDonaldization retains its wide array of sources from journal articles to essays from edited books to newspaper and magazine articles In this new edition articles have been edited to limit repetition Discussion questions and thinking critically sections have been added to aid in reviewing the material presented and further extending the conversation about and surrounding McDonaldization Fortune Henry Robinson Luce,2004 Interdisciplinary Information Sciences ,2007 The Blackwell Encyclopedia of Sociology: F-HE George Ritzer,2007 Sociology ,2001
