Written by the renowned childcare experts at My First Five Years, the popular app designed to help parents support their child's physical, cognitive and emotional development, this unique book of 60 activities explains the why behind different types of play and shows you how to make the most of short daily moments together. You might be wondering why your baby loves to show you objects they've found or why they prefer some toys to others. Have you questioned why they can roll from their back onto their tummy but not the other way around? This book breaks down the science of early childhood development into concise summaries and includes easy, realistic ideas for play that make the most of development opportunities. The activities are clearly set out with step-by-step instructions, lists of equipment and benefits for your baby. The book is split into six streams of development: social and emotional, gross motor, fine motor, sensory, language and cognitive, and each chapter includes a summary of the underlying science followed by simple fun play ideas you can do at home with your baby. From tasty finger paint to egg box puzzles, the ideas fit neatly into daily life and focus on enhancing play into pivotal learning moments. There are also QR codes featured throughout linking to additional related content. Beautifully colour illustrated and full of tips and advice, this book is perfect for building the foundations for your baby's lifelong learning, development, health and wellbeing. This app has been incredibly helpful in helping me navigate the minefield that is being a new mother. Praise for the My First Five Years app. Performing the Wound Niki Tulk, 2022-05-15 This book offers a matrixial feminist centered analysis of trauma and performance through examining the work of three artists: Ann Hamilton, Renée Green and Cecilia Vicuña. Each artist engages in a multi-media or combination performance practice; this includes the use of site, embodied performance, material elements, film and writing. Each case study involves traumatic content including the legacy of slavery, child sexual abuse and environmental degradation; each artist constructs an aesthetic milieu that invites rather than immerses; this allows an audience to have agency as well as multiple pathways into their engagement with the art. The author Niki Tulk suggests that these works facilitate an audience performance relationship based on the concept of ethical witnessing, with witnessing in which viewers are not positioned as voyeurs nor made to risk re-traumatization by being forced to view traumatic events re-played on stage. This approach also allows agency to the art itself in that an ethical space is created where the art is not objectified or looked at but joined with. Foundational to this investigation are the writings of Bracha L. Ettinger, Jill Bennett and Diana Taylor, particularly Ettinger's concepts of the matrixial carriage and border linking These artists and scholars present a capacity to expand and articulate answers to questions regarding how to make performance that remains compelling and truthful to the trauma experience but not re-traumatizing This study will be of great interest to students and scholars of performance studies art history visual arts feminist studies theatre film performance art postcolonialism rhetoric and writing Yoga Daren Callahan, 2015-01-28

Thompson, 2015-11-12 Come voyage through lost roots of the multi-dimensional artistry of collage This seemingly simple method leads you on an adventure of self-discovery developing your innate abilities for shapes shifting using paper scissors and glue Author and artist Donna Thompson shares her wisdom and stories as she leads you on a journey through time From caves of old to collaging in your own home this colorful adventure is an in-depth exploration of humanity's ancient connections to making art This triple-layered approach is actually three books in one It begins by guiding you through the mystical Doorway of Color where you learn the Celtic ways of sensing gathering and envisioning with images Next comes the Doorway of Ceremonies where you unearth indigenous ways of communing with collage And finally the Doorway of Dreams leading to the most ancient ways of remembering who you truly are Learning to quest with collage is all about playing with colors signs and synchronicity It is also a metaphor for the ongoing journey of each human life You are invited to come along in search of multi-hued elements to weave into an ever-unfolding landscape of your own design Collage Quest is a guide for tracing these deep roots and translating them into modern-day materials and language It is a unique and powerful 21st-century tool of co-creation The Language of Animals Carol Gurney, 2008-12-10 A Step by Step Program for
