Genocide in Rwanda Carol Rittner, John K. Roth, Wendy Whitworth, 2004-08-23 In 1994 genocide put Rwanda on the map for most of the world It also exposed one of the most shameful scandals of the Rwandan churches the complicity of the Christian churches in the genocide Rwanda is the most Christian country in Africa More than 90% of its people are baptized Christians with the Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches having the greatest number of adherents According to Archbishop Desmond Tutu The story of Rwanda shows both sides of our humanity The churches were sometimes quite superb in what they did in the face of intimidation and at great cost to themselves But there were other times when they failed dismally and seemed to be implicated in ways that have left many disillusioned disgruntled and angry

Genocide In Rwanda provides a variety of perspectives through which to assess the complex questions and issues surrounding the topic and even raise some new questions that could provide some new insight into this historical event They are questions we must ask otherwise how can the Church begin to make moral restitution change structures and behaviors and once again reveal the human face of God in our fragile world

Africa in the United Nations System, 1945-2005 Issaka K. Souare, 2006 Though there have been numerous studies on the United Nations only a few have dealt comprehensively with Africa s relations with the world body This book attempts to fill this lacuna by providing a systematic assessment of Africa s relationship with the World body from its foundation in 1945 to its sixtieth anniversary in 2005 The premise of the book s argument is that to properly understand Africa s current relationship with the UN it is necessary to first understand the history and theoretical underpinnings behind the formation of the world body including the expectations and motives of the different stakeholders The book shows that there have been some real successes in Africa s relationship with the world body such as the joint efforts against the Apartheid regime in South Africa as well as real failures such as in the genocide in Rwanda Based on this it concludes that Africa s relationship with the United Nations has worked for the most part and will work even better if Africa sees its partnership with the UN as complementary to its own efforts projects and initiatives rather than something to depend on
