Overlapping Inequalities in the Welfare State Başak Akkan,Julia Hahmann,Christine Hunner-Kreisel,Melanie Kuhn,2024-06-18 The volume stresses the relevance of the intersectionality framework in welfare state analysis by examining overlapping inequalities within the shifting institutional boundaries and organisational processes across diverse welfare settings The volume explores the strengths and challenges of theoretical and methodological approaches to intersectionality addressing its spatial temporal and comparative dimensions It therefore adopts a critical and process focused approach while recognising the agency of individuals as subjects of state policies The contributions critically build the link between intersectionality and other theoretical frameworks and research paradigms including Marxist social reproduction theory critical race studies Bourdieuan analysis of class critical geography childhood queer migration and disability studies The contributions provide insights into the institutional realms of health education social services and care work and examine state practices of racial profiling and policing in distinct welfare states Overall the contributions illustrate the strengths of the intersectionality framework in empirical inquiries while providing critical reflections on its limitations Readers across a diverse array of social science disciplines will find this book valuable Practicing the Family Sabine Bollig,Lisa Groß,2025-01-21 How family is construed on a material and discursive level has gained increasing interest among educational and social work professionals The contributors to this volume address that question in relation to the diverse everyday practices of doing family by its heterogeneous members The contributions build a transdisciplinary bridge between research on family life on the one hand and research on the formatting of family in welfare state contexts on the other Fundamental to this is a decentred and fluid understanding of family that conceives itself as a contested set of relational activities in people s everyday lives that are socially recognized as familial Understanding the Transformation of Germany's CDU Simon Green,Ed Turner,2016-02-05 This book analyses the Christian Democratic Union of Germany CDU one of Europe s most successful and influential political parties The CDU might have been expected to struggle in the circumstances of a more diverse secular reunified Germany yet it has prospered to an extent almost unparalleled in western Europe Chapters consider the CDU s policies the factors driving them their variation across Germany the relationship to women and the welfare state its organisational development and change and its position within the party system Contributors particularly emphasise the diversity of the CDU and the way it varies across Germany s regions The CDU is compared to other Christian Democratic parties and special consideration is given to the CDU s Bavarian sister party the Christian Social Union CSU This book was published as a special issue of German Politics Dimensions of Poverty Valentin Beck,Henning Hahn,Robert Lepenies,2020-06-10 This anthology constitutes an important contribution to the interdisciplinary debate on poverty measurement and alleviation Absolute and relative poverty both within and across state boundaries are standardly measured and evaluated in monetary terms However poverty researchers have highlighted the shortfalls of one dimensional monetary metrics A new consensus is emerging that effectively addressing poverty requires a nuanced understanding of poverty as a relational phenomenon involving deprivations in multiple dimensions including health standard of living education and political participation This volume advances the debate on poverty by providing a forum for philosophers and empirical researchers It combines philosophically sound analysis and genuinely global research on poverty s social embeddedness Next to an introduction to this interdisciplinary field which links Practical Philosophy Development Economics Political Science and Sociology it contains articles by leading international experts and early career scholars The contributors analyse the concept of poverty detail its multiple dimensions reveal epistemic injustices in poverty research and reflect on the challenges of poverty related social activism The unifying theme connecting this volume s contributions is that poverty must be understood as a multidimensional and socially relational phenomenon and that this insight can enhance our efforts to measure and alleviate poverty The Capacity to be Displaced: Resilience, Mission, and Inner Strength Clemens Sedmak,2017-04-03 The experience of displacement is shared by people who work internationally The capacity to be displaced is a necessary strength and skill for people working across cultures particularly for missionaries In order to deal with the stressful nature of displacement people need to be resilient resilience makes people flourish in adverse circumstances This volume presents a specific type of resilience namely resilience nourished by inner sources Cultivating inner resilience draws on all the facets of a person s interior life thoughts and memories hopes and desires beliefs and convictions concerns and emotions The notion of inner strength and resilience from within is developed using many examples from missionaries and development workers as well as case studies from all over the world The Modern Language Journal ,1916 Includes section Reviews Parents in the Spotlight Tanja Betz,Michael-Sebastian Honig,Ilona Ostner,2017-07-17 Children and parents have become a focus of debates on new social risks in European welfare states Policymaking elites have converged in defining such risks and they have outlined new forms of parenting support to better safeguard children and activate their potential Increasingly parents are suspected of falling short of public expectations Contributors to this special issue scrutinize this shift towards parenting as performance and analyse recent forms of parenting support Vierteljahrshefte für Truppenführung und Heereskunde Prussia (Germany).
