El Laberinto Griego Carvalho:

Transatlantic Mysteries William J. Nichols, 2011 Transatlantic Mysteries presents a comparative study that brings together authors Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Manuel Vázquez Montalbán from two specific political contexts post 1968 Mexico and post Franco Spain who both work in one specific genre noir detective fiction In this so called age of globalization Spain and Mexico have witnessed an explosion in the production of noir detective fiction which these authors choose purposefully in order to infiltrate the market with formulaic popular literature while simultaneously critiquing the effects of the neoliberal strategies embraced by their countries By locating themselves at the crossroads where literature meets the market they not only underscore the effects of capital on literary and cultural production but also explore the possibility for their writing to resist the influences of capital and question the role of an intellectual in an era of globalization At the core of their writing Taibo and Vázquez Montalbán examine the revolutionary possibilities of literature and popular culture to offer a new kind of Marxist project that revitalizes the Left by redefining the role of socially engaged literature in a globalized landscape

Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Detective Fiction Renée W. Craig-Odders, Jacky Collins, Glen S. Close, 2006-03-20 The image of the hard boiled private investigator from gritty pulp fiction a terse and mysterious figure has become increasingly universal as the detective novel crosses more and more borders A booming genre in Latin America Spain and other Hispanic cultures detective fiction has transcended the limitations of its influences Hispanic authors relatively new to the genre have published novels and series popular with the public while a number of well known writers have adapted the genre to reflect the concurrent globalization of modern society and the crimes within it This volume presents a compilation of 11 critical essays on genero negro contemporary detective fiction in the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian canon Surveying the last twenty years the text analyzes emerging trends in this rapidly evolving genre as well as the mutations and innovations taking place within the style The first section of the book is dedicated to the detective fiction of Spain and Portugal The second section surveys works from Latin America and the United States where topics touch on universal subjects like crime identity and feminism

Theory, Genre, and Memory in the Carvalho Series of Manuel Vázquez Montalbán Susana Bayó Belenguer, 2001 This study examines the work of Manuel Vázquez Montalbán a Spanish creative writer and socio political commentator focusing on his Carvalho series of detective novels which span some 25 years Bayo Bellenguer Spanish Dublin University Trinity College attempts to establish the literary value of the Carvalho series and to show how it relates to Montalbán's earlier creative work and to his essays She demonstrates the impact of major trends in literary theory upon the series in order to redress earlier critics literary assessments and analyzes the series protagonist using the traditional tools of character study c Book News Inc
