Elegies in Blue Benjamin Alire Sáenz, 2002 Sáenz speaks from inside the skin of himself Chicano political being spiritual seeker family man and lover

A Poet's Truth Bruce Allen Dick, 2022-02-22 Among students and aficionados of contemporary literature the work of Latina and Latino poets holds a particular fascination Through works imbued with fire and passion these writers have kindled new enthusiasm in their compatriots and admiration in non Latino readers This book brings together recent interviews with fifteen Latino poets a cross section of Chicano Puerto Rican and Cuban voices who discuss not only their work but also related issues that help define their place in American literature Each talks at length about the craft of his or her poetry both the influences and the process behind it and takes a stand on social and political issues affecting Latinos across the United States The interviews feature both established writers published as early as the 1960s and emerging artists each of whom has enjoyed success in other literary forms also As Bruce Dick's insightful questions reveal the key threads linking these writers are their connections to their families and communities and their concern for civil rights believing like Chicana writer Pat Mora that the work of the poet is for the people The interviews also reveal diversity among and within the three communities from Victor Hernández Cruz who traces Latino collective identity to Africa and claims that all Latinos are swimming in olive oil to Cuban writer Gustavo Pérez Firmat who considers nationality more important than ethnicity and says that the term Latino erases his nationality The dialogues also offer new insights on the place of Chicano writings in the U S Mexico borderlands on the Puerto Rican Nuyorican establishment and on the anti Castro stand of Cuban born poets As these writers answer questions about their work background ethnic identity and political ideology they provide a wealth of biographical intellectual and literary material collected here for the first time A Poet's Truth is a provocative and revealing book that not only conveys the fire of these writers' passions but also sheds important light on a whole literary movement Interviews with Miguel Algarín Martín Espada Sandra María Esteves Victor Hernández Cruz Carolina Hospital and Carlos Medina Demetria Martínez Pat Mora Judith Ortiz Cofer Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo Pérez Firmat Leroy Quintana Aleida Rodríguez Luis Rodríguez Benjamin Alire Sáenz Virgil Suárez

Class List Bangor Public Library (Bangor, Me.), 1907 The Metaphysics of Night Matthew Del Nevo, 2014-04-18 The Metaphysics of Night acknowledges a post secular philosophy one that puts philosophy into serious dialogue with religion rather than considering religion a thing of the past Matthew Del Nevo deals with the cultural unconscious inseparable from religious consciousness and draws on psychoanalysis and literature as well as philosophy The metaphysics of the night is Del Nevo's metaphor for the deep and mysterious expanse of the soul Philosophically the book is critical of Enlightenment presumptions about knowledge and truth and overly spiritualizing tendencies in religion Its critical edge cuts against materialist and historicist tendencies in the humanities and abstract intellectualism in philosophy Arguing for strong aesthetic values Del Nevo defends and explains soul and soulful experience the creation of depth the ineffable real presence beauty and saving words noting that the sources of all these are in us but often are blocked Each of the five parts of this book testify to what the author notes may be forgotten but which ought not to be forgotten It is necessary for life as socially religiously and educationally instituted within culture and as constitutive for culture Del Nevo deals with sensibility as a form of wisdom and instinct that is not cognitive or knowledge information based He argues for a shift of emphasis in culture from intellect to intuition This well written work filled with Catholic philosophic and artistic thought will be of interest to all philosophers theologians and students of culture
