Gradation 1-3 Charles Baker, 1856. Scripture in Context II William W. Hallo, James C. Moyer, Leo G. Perdue, 1983. In the summers of 1978 and 1980 William W. Hallo directed two National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminars, both of which had the title Biblical History in its Near Eastern Setting. These seminars conducted at Yale University have now resulted in two related collections of essays. This second collection, Scripture in Context II, had its origins in the 1980 seminar. Both seminars investigated in chronological sequence the major phases of ancient Near Eastern history and focused on the history, literary traditions, and religion of ancient Israel within the context of their cultural environs. A major concern was to recognize and explore the implications of the way in which the native biblical and extra-biblical literary traditions rendered account of themselves. The methodology followed in the seminars and the resulting essays is the contextual approach. This approach to the study of biblical history, literature, and religion is concerned not only to discover illuminating and insightful parallels between biblical and extrabiblical sources but also to note and recognize the implications of significant and important differences. Illustrated ,1871 The child's Bible narrative ,1871 The Deuteronomist's Prophet Lissa M Wray Beal,2007-09-20 This book explores by way of narrative analysis the story of Jehu s revolt in 2 Kings 9 and 10 and the tensions and ambiguities surrounding the evaluation of Jehu that it contains In the narrative the Deuteronomist writes in many voices the prophet s the Lord the narrator even Jehu himself The tension within the Jehu narrative arises in the interaction of the various voices and careful study of these narrative voices reveals two primary criteria for evaluating Jehu 1 faithful observance of correct Deuteronomistic worship that is true Yahwistic worship in the Jerusalem Temple and 2 faithful obedience to the prophetic word Each criterion is expressed in the narrative and as a means of finally resolving the ambiguity of the evaluative voices the narrative presents the criterion of worship in supersession over the criterion of the prophetic word The narrative analysis shows how the Jehu narrative connects linguistically thematically and analogically to the larger Deuteronomistic History and provides rubrics under which a Deuteronomistic theology of kingly legitimation can be examined The theology that arises from the Jehu narrative in respect of kingly legitimation traced through the criteria of proper worship and the prophetic word at times adds unique emphases to the theology of kingly legitimation presented in the history At other times it stands seamlessly with the theology of the larger history At all times the theology of worship and word shows the Jehu narrative ultimately cannot be read successfully or fully in isolation from the surrounding text and the theology presented there
