An Introduction to Theories of Personality B. R. Hergenhahn, 1994 Summarizes major theories of personality and assumes that the best understanding of personality is derived from a number of viewpoints The text includes class tested experiential exercises and biographical sketches of each theorist which aim to help students relate to the theories New topics in this edition include Bouchard s research on genetic influence on personality and Bandura s views on media freedom determinism and the mind body relationship

Perspectives on Power Heather M. Morgan, Jernej Letnar Čerňič, Lindsay Milligan, 2010 Although power TM can appear a vague term the dichotomy between haves and have nots the desire to gain autonomy and the dire consequences of subjugation are three issues that resound across the arts and social sciences In this book postgraduate students from the constituent disciplines use the freedom of their positions as early career researchers to boldly explore power relations From a legal perspective papers are included geared towards human rights issues and violations Further the applied perspectives from business and education researchers consider how access to wealth and education and to equal education can and must be achieved Then interpreted through the perspectives of anthropological sociological and historical approaches power has become a resonant issue among the creations of culture and human interaction s Finally within the soft TM sciences the very same preoccupations as they appear in creative expression are examined within literature and music Indeed through the twenty one articles chosen for inclusion in this collection distinct in their disciplinary origins approaches and foci together the authors are emphasising the many similarities that exist among the arts and social sciences subjects

Perspectives on

Power An Interdisciplinary Approach TM was conceived as a result of the quality and reception of papers presented at the 2008 Moving Forward Postgraduate Conference held at the University of Aberdeen The volume comprises twenty one articles on the theme of power TM carefully chosen by the editorial team from in excess of eighty presentations These represent and tender a wide range of scholarly approaches to and within the arts and social sciences the remit of Moving Forward The collection is aimed at scholars and scholarly institutions within the United Kingdom in particular but contains contributions from scholars across the globe The collection should especially appeal to and inspire delegates visiting the Moving Forward Postgraduate Conference in the years to come
