Filomeno V. Aguilar Jr.

Ducky Paredes Malaya:

Long Crisis Ken Fuller, 2016-10-20 What s in a presidency In this book Ken Fuller methodically dissects the headline grabbing events surrounding the nine year administration of Gloria Macapagal Arroyo discussing the circumstances that led to her rise to power and allowed her to maintain hold of it despite numerous controversies Analyzing Arroyo s laundry list of alleged wrongdoings in the context of neocolonization and Philippine socioeconomic and political history he asserts that her presidency e must be seen at least in part as a product rather than the cause of the fundamental problems confronting the Philippine problems that though Arroyo is no longer president continue to plague the country A Country of Our Own David C. Martinez, 2004 Migration Revolution Filomeno V. Aguilar Jr., 2014-04-11 Since the 1960s overseas migration had become a major factor in the economy of the Philippines It has also profoundly influenced the sense of nationhood of both migrants and nonmigrants Migrant workers learned to view their home country as part of a plural world of nations and they shaped a new sort of Filipino identity while appropriating the modernity of the outside world where at least for a while they operated as insiders The global nomadism of Filipino workers brought about some fundamental reorientations It revolutionized Philippine society reignited a sense of nationhood imposed new demands on the state reconfigured the class structure and transnationalized class and other social relations even as it deterritorialized the state and impacted the destinations of migrant workers Philippine foreign policy now takes surprising turns in consideration of migrant workers and Filipinos living abroad Many tertiary education institutions aim deliberately at the overseas employability of local graduates And the Fil foreign offspring of unions with partners from other nationalities add a new inflection to Filipino identity The Manila Water Concession Mark Dumol, 2000-01-01 In January 1997 the Government of the Philippines awarded two long term concession contracts to private consortia to operate the water and wastewater services in Greater Manila an area with a population of 11 million The winning bidders accepted contractual obligations to expand services faster than in the past and offered rebates on the tariffs of the incumbent public utility This diary of a key player in the government team that steered the Manila transaction demonstrates principles that will be valid wherever such privatisations might occur the importance of sustained high level political commitment the need for a strong and dedicated government team supported by experienced advisors the value of a transparent bidding process and the need to communicate and consult broadly from foreword President Erap: Facing the challenge of EDSA II Zeus A.
