Juliana Horatia Ewing and Her Books (Classic Reprint) Horatia K. F. Eden, 2016-11-13 Excerpt from Juliana Horatia Ewing and Her Books The first Letter relating Julie s method of teaching a Liturgical Class should be read with the remembrance that it was written thirty two years ago long before the development of our present Educational System but it is valuable for the zeal and energy it records combined with the common incident of the writer being too ill to appear at the critical moment of the Inspector s visit In a later letter dated May 28 1866 there are certain remarks about class singing in schools which are also out of date but this is retained as a proof of the keen sense of musical rhythm and accent which my sister had and which gave her power to write words for music although she could play no instrument About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Flowers and Fruit from the Writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe (Classic Reprint) Harriet Beecher Stowe, 2015-06-28 Excerpt from Flowers and Fruit From the Writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe When we feel a thing ourselves we can see very quick the same in others When a finely constituted nature wishes to go into baseness it has first to bribe itself Evil is never embraced undisguised as evil but under some fiction which the mind accepts and with which it has the singular power of blinding itself in the face of daylight The power of imposing on one s self is an essential preliminary to imposing on others The man first argues himself down and then he is ready to put the whole weight of his nature to deceiving others Perhaps it is so that souls once intimately related have ever after this a strange power of affecting each other a power that neither absence nor death can annul About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections
