Kaczvinsky, 2011-12-16 Durrell and the City commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Alexandria Quartet with a collection of fourteen new essays by a group of international scholars and critics The collection provides a critical consideration of Durrell's urban landscapes from the London of his early novels to Avignon during World War II in his last great series while focusing on the place that made him famous the city of Alexandria in order to provide a reassessment of his career and achievement

Re-reading The Alexandria Quartet of Lawrence Durrell (Durrell Studies 8) Richard Pine, 2023-08-25 Lawrence Durrell's The Alexandria Quartet is regarded as the central work in his fiction It has provoked critical commentary ever since the appearance of its individual volumes Justine 1957 Balthazar 1958 Mountolive and Clea 1959 and the publication in a one volume edition in 1962 Scores of Master's and PhD dissertations have been written since the 1960s on this most compelling and provocative novel Today The Alexandria Quartet stimulates critical discussion in works addressing the city Durrell's representation of Alexandria the theory of relativity the role of memory the recurring feature of the doppelgänger and the presence of the Gothic uncanny his frequent references to D H Lawrence his treatment of women characters his interest in Gnosticism and his own description of the Quartet as a strange mixture of sex and the secret service This volume of essays addresses all these themes and brings together the mature work of four scholars on this central work of Durrell's fiction together with two essays on its sequels Tunc Nunquam 1968-70 and The Avignon Quintet 1974-85 Jerusalem in the Second World War Daphna Sharfman, 2023-12-28 This book is the first to present the unique story of the city of Jerusalem during the events of the Second World War and how it played a unique role in both the military and civilian aspects of the war Whilst Jerusalem is usually known for topics such as religion archaeology or the politics of the Israeli Arab conflict this volume provides an in depth analysis of this exceptional and temporary situation in Jerusalem offering a perspective that is different from the usual political strategic military analysis Although battles were raging in the nearby countries of Syria and Lebanon and the war in Egypt and the Western Desert the people who came to Jerusalem as well as those who lived there had different agendas and perspectives Some were spies and intelligence officers other were exiles or refugee immigrants from Europe who managed at the last moment to escape Nazi persecution Journalists and writers described life in the city at this time All were probably conscious of the fact that when the war came to an end local rivalry and mounting conflict would take the centre stage again This was a time of a special magical drawn out moment that may shed light on an alternative more peaceful kind of Jerusalem that unfortunately was not to be This volume seeks to find an alternative approach and to contribute to the development of insightful research into life in an unordinary city in an unordinary situation It will be of value to those interested in military history and the history of the Middle East Contemporary Trauma Narratives

Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory

Critically Mediterranean yasser elhariry, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2018-03-06 Traversed by masses of migrants and wracked by environmental and economic change the Mediterranean has come to connote crisis In this context Critically Mediterranean asks how the theories and methodologies of Mediterranean studies may be brought to bear upon the modern and contemporary periods Contributors explore how the Mediterranean informs philosophy phenomenology the poetics of time and space and literary theory Ranging from some of the earliest twentieth century material on the Mediterranean to Edmond Amran El Maleh Christoforos Savva Orhan Pamuk and Etel Adnan the essays ask how modern and contemporary Mediterraneans may be deployed in political cultural artistic and literary practice The critical Mediterranean that emerges is plural and performative a medium through which subjects may negotiate imagined relations with the world around them Vibrant and deeply interdisciplinary Critically Mediterranean offers timely interventions for a sea in crisis A
