John S. Dwight, 2018-03-24 Excerpt from Dwight's Journal of Music 1880 Vol 39 A Paper of Art and Literature The lovely spring weather of Majorca returned Chopin's health seemed again restored the family wished to spend the summer on the island But he impatiently insisted on returning to France at once Rue Sand says Playful Amiable Charming in society Chopin In the domestic retirement of intimate friendship drove one to despair No disposition more noble deflate Disinterested than his No character more loyal and true No mind more brilliant in gaiety No intelligence more serious and complete in its own domain but On the other hand Alas No temper more unequal No Imagination more suspicious No susceptibility so easily irritated No attachment so exacting Yet this was not his fault But his misfortune His spirit was aged alive the fold of a rose leaf The shadow of a fly stand it to bleed Everything under the sky of Spain now seemed repulsive and revolting to him except myself and my children and he was dying to be gone Not so much on account of the inconveniences of our residence
