Engaging Men In The Fight Against Gender Violence Case Studies From Africa:

Engaging Men in the Fight against Gender Violence Jane Freedman, 2012-12-05 Gender based violence is a global phenomenon which affects millions worldwide However despite the increasing attention which is now paid to this violence by policy makers data seem to indicate that these efforts are not having as great an impact as may have been hoped In all countries of the world reports of gender related violence remain elevated whilst many incidents of such violence probably remain unreported due to fear of stigma or reprisals for those who are victims One of the problems in tackling gender based violence has been that for too long men have been ignored as part of the solution Men are often labelled as perpetrators of violence but they are perhaps too infrequently considered also as potential victims or as partners and actors in the fight against violence Constructions of masculinities are not adequately studied to analyse how dominant forms of masculinities may contribute to cycles of violence and may also oppress and traumatise men themselves This volume aims to address critically the issues of men masculinity and gender based violence asking how men can be fully engaged in the prevention of gender based violence and how this engagement can strengthen prevention initiatives The (Un)Certain Future of Empathy in Posthumanism, Cyberculture and Science Fiction Elsa Bouet, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This volume investigates the future of empathy as contemplated by posthumanism cyberculture and science fiction As humanity increasingly networks and communicates online the reconfiguration of human communities through the removal and immediacy of the body challenges traditional notions of humanity and human capacity for empathy The impact of cyberculture and posthumanism on humanity and its capacity for empathy is here assessed through research in literature films neuroscience anthropology and philosophy This volume addresses the centrality of the body to human interactions and assesses how intrinsic it is to the defining of the human The exploration of posthuman narratives which display futuristic bodily modifications also engages with the anxieties and hopes for the future of human empathy Research in dystopian narratives shows that these anxieties are also expressed without the tropes of bodily modifications and that ideological distancing creates the conditions necessary for a lack of empathy towards otherness Africa in the Age of Globalisation Edward Shizha, Lamine Diallo, 2016-03-09 This is a collection of bold and visionary scholarship that reveals an insightful exposition of re-visioning African development from African perspectives It provides educators policy makers social workers non governmental agencies and development agencies with an interdisciplinary conceptual base that can effectively guide them in planning and implementing programs for socio economic development in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa politics democracy education gender technology global relationships and the role of non governmental organisations The authors challenge the familiar paradigms in order to show how imperfectly if at all assumptions about globalisation and development theories have failed in their depictions and applications to Africa The scholars in this volume

both inform and advocate for a re visioning of perceptions on Africa and how it navigates global processes

The Globalization of Gender Ioana Cîrstocea, Delphine Lacombe, Elisabeth Marteu, 2019-07-04 This book provides an insightful approach to understanding the contemporary circulations of feminist repertoires and shows how the international transnational circulations of gender are interconnected even coextensive with the globalization process itself Fed by a shared reflexivity on relations among activist groups state institutions and international actors involved in the production and dissemination of contemporary norms dealing with gender each chapter shares methodological premises and studies the circulation of gender related norms and knowledge in situ and by varying standpoints Specifically the authors de compartmentalize the academic disciplines and go beyond classical geographic divisions in order to map social spaces and networks of actors involved in the production and circulation of gender related repertoires Last the book grasps circulatory processes and entangled social phenomena which are usually subject to disciplinary and thematic divisions separating collective action and public action development aid and feminism law and international relations Focused on collective and individual experiences within women s organizations activist careers unstable mobilizations public policies temporalities the chapters reveal the mechanisms through which these arrangements are made and shed light on strategies deployed by actors rooted in specific social and political contexts This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of gender studies and more broadly to politics International Relations sociology geography history and anthropology

Sexual Violence Crimes and Gendered Power Relations Bilge Sahin, 2020-10-29 This book provides a robust gendered analysis and establishes a feminist approach to international actors responses to sexual violence crimes in conflict in eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC and the impact of these global political practices on local gendered power relations Sexual violence crimes in eastern DRC have received significant global attention and triggered calls by the international community to end this violence This book critically assesses international assistance to the Congolese legal system to challenge sexual violence crimes to determine to what extent it engages with the continuum of gendered violence from peacetime to conflict It also examines whether international assistance has produced any transformations in gendered power relations in eastern DRC The author investigates how challenging sexual violence crimes in conflict necessitates broader female empowerment and engagement with gendered power relations This book will be of interest to scholars and postgraduate students in gender studies development studies and international relations It will also provide significant guidance for professionals working for development agencies and international NGOs focusing on eastern DRC

Does the UN Model Still Work? Challenges and Prospects for the Future of Multilateralism , 2022-11-28 Composed of original articles from academics and policy notes from practitioners this book attempts to draw up the state of multilateralism through the UN model and identify potential ways to address its challenges and shortcomings The contributors question the role of multilateralism sometimes accused of being fragmented inefficient and unrepresentative and its impact on global governance democracy trade and investment the environment and human rights Since most of the authors are not from the UN system the content of the contributions provides an external and more neutral assessment of the UN s ability to continue to function today as a serious actor within a global movement in favor of a renewed form of multilateralism Does the UN Model Still Work Challenges and Prospects for the Future of Multilateralism is now available in paperback for individual customers Born from Lament Emmanuel Katongole,2017-04-25 There is no more urgent theological task than to provide an account of hope in Africa given its endless cycles of violence war poverty and displacement So claims Emmanuel Katongole an innovative theological voice from Africa In the midst of suffering Katongole says hope takes the form of arguing and wrestling with God Such lament is not merely a cry of pain it is a way of mourning protesting and appealing to God As he unpacks the rich theological and social dimensions of the practice of lament in Africa Katongole tells the stories of courageous Christian activists working for change in East Africa and invites readers to enter into lament along with them Engaging Men in Building Gender Equality Michael Flood (Lecturer in sociology),Richard Howson,2015 Across the globe there are growing efforts to engage men and boys in building more equitable relations with women and girls Programs engaging them have proliferated in fields such as violence prevention sexual and reproductive health parenting education and work and the last decade has seen the emergence of national and global campaigns as well as initiatives by international agencies and scholarly research This volume brings together key discussions and evaluations from the field Men and Masculinities Stephen M. Whitehead,2006 The sociology of masculinity began to assume real significance from the late 1980s onwards Part of Critical Concepts in Sociology series this five volume set brings together material in the field and serves as a useful resource for scholars and students Partners in Change ,2002 Eliminating long term structural causes of violence require profound soical cultural and economic change These in turn need the institutional and political impetus that requires a re assessment of collective beliefs motivations and behaviours related to gender power and powerlessness The papers presented in this volume explore the different kinds of partnerships for ending gender based violence and men s roles and responsibilities with them Working with Men to End Gender-based Violence ,2004 Gender-based Violence in Sierra Leone ,2005 Annual Report of the Commission on Gender Equality South Africa.
