Engaging Equity New Perspectives On Anti Racist Education:

Engaging Equity Leeno Karumanchery, 2005-01-01 Contrary to those mainstream efforts that paint racism and social oppression as remnants of a troubled past today's relations of social power remain intractable as they continue to mediate and discipline the lives of the oppressed Recognizing that racism and other forms of oppression continue to evolve and adapt to our changing times it is crucial that our strategies for resistance are equally dynamic and proactive In this reader Leeno Karumanchery has brought together some of critical theory's most powerful and insurgent voices to explore this vital strand of the anti racist tapestry by asking How do we understand our oppression and how do we frame and manage our resistance in the face of it Engaging Equity is framed as a sociohistoric expose of the Western educational system revealing the banality of oppression in today's schools Developed within a philosophy of hope this book reminds us that real and meaningful change towards social justice can be achieved but only if our politics strategies and resolve are equal to the task

Decolonization and Anti-colonial Praxis, 2019-06-07 Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis presents research on contemporary forms of decolonization and anti colonialism in practice It pertains to the ways in which individuals groups and communities engage with the logic of epistemic colonial power within areas of citizenship migration education Indigeneity language land struggle and social work The contributions in this edited volume empirically document the conceptual and bodily engagement of racialized and violated individuals and communities as they use anti colonial principles to disrupt criminalizing institutional discourses and policies within various global imperial contexts The terms Decolonization and Anti colonialism are used in diverse and interdisciplinary academic perspectives They are researched upon and elaborated in necessary ways in the theoretical literature however it is rare to see these principles employed in applied forms Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis provides a much needed contemporary and representative reclamation of these concepts from the standpoint of racialized communities It explores the frameworks and methods rooted in their indigeneity cultural history and memories to imagine a new future The research findings and methodological tools presented in this book will be of interdisciplinary interest to teachers graduate students and researchers Contributors are Harriet Akanmori Ayah Al Oballi Sevgi Arslan Jacqueline Benn John Lucy El Sherif Danielle Freitas Pablo Isla Monsalve Dionisio Nyaga Hoda Samater Rose Ann Torres Umar Umangay and Anila Zainub

Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries - Vol 4 Samuel Totten, Jon Pedersen, 2014-05-01 This volume is the fourth and last volume in the series entitled Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries An Annotated Bibliography Volumes I and Volume 2 focused on 1 the lives and work of notable scholars dedicated to addressing why and how social issues should become an integral component of the public school curriculum and 2 various topics approaches vis vis addressing social issues in the classroom Volume 3 addressed approaches to incorporating social issues into the extant curricula that were not addressed in the first two volumes This volume Volume Four focuses solely on critical pedagogy both the lives and work of major critical pedagogues and the different strains of critical pedagogy the latter pursued e.g. critical theory in education critical feminism in education critical race theory

Revisiting The Great White North? Darren E. Lund, 2015-01-20 Returning seven years later to their original pieces from this landmark book over 20 leading scholars and activists revisit and reframe their rich contributions to a burgeoning scholarship on Whiteness With new reflective writings for each chapter and valuable sections on relevant readings and resources this volume refreshes and enhances the first text to pay critical and sustained attention to Whiteness in education with implications far beyond national borders Contributors include George Sefa Dei Tracey Lindberg Carl James Cynthia Levine Rasky and the late Patrick Solomon Courageously examining diverse perspectives contexts and institutional practices contributors to this volume dismantle the underpinnings of inequitable power relations privilege and marginalization The book's relevance extends to those in a range of settings with abundant and poignant lessons for enhancing and understanding transformative social justice work in education Revisiting The Great White North offers terrific grist for examining the persistence of Whiteness even as it shape shifts Chapters are comprehensive theoretically rich and anchored in personal experience Authors' reflections on the seven years since publication of the first edition of this book complexify how we understand Whiteness while simultaneously driving home the need not only to grapple with it but to work against it Christine Sleeter Professor Emerita California State University Monterey Bay Our understanding of racial inequities in education will be impoverished unless we look deeply at White privilege its variation in different contexts and resistances to change Such is the call in this important book by Lund Carr and colleagues whose analyses within Canadian contexts framed and re framed for this captivating revised edition will be useful to educators and scholars around the world Read this book today Kevin Kumashiro Dean School of Education University of San Francisco President National Association for Multicultural Education Darren Lund and Paul Carr have given the contributors to their original 2007 text the opportunity to revisit rethink reconceptualize and reframe their earlier work The result is an interesting invigorating and unsettling group of chapters that challenge readers to also revisit and rethink their own ideas about Whiteness privilege and power Teachers administrators policymakers and researchers will all benefit from this critical work Sonia Nieto Professor Emerita Language Literacy and Culture College of Education University of Massachusetts Amherst Lund and Carr bring together a superb collection of authors who collectively challenge readers to go beyond liberal platitudes about race until educators confront the political social and economic consequences of inequitably distributed privilege the path towards equality and freedom will remain elusive By immersing us in the discourse of Whiteness the essays in this book illuminate that very path Joel Westheimer University Research Chair Professor Faculty of Education University of Ottawa

Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T. Carter, Alex L. Pieterse, 2020-07-21 A large body of research has established a causal relationship between experiences of racial discrimination and adverse effects on mental and physical health In Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T. Carter and Alex L. Pieterse offer a manual for mental health professionals on how to understand assess and treat the effects of racism as a psychological injury Carter and Pieterse provide guidance on how to recognize the psychological effects of racism and racial discrimination They propose an approach to understanding racism that connects particular experiences and incidents with a person s individual psychological and emotional response They detail how to evaluate the specific effects of race based encounters that produce psychological distress and possibly impairment or trauma Carter and Pieterse outline therapeutic interventions for use with individuals and groups who have experienced racial trauma and they draw attention to the importance of racial awareness for practitioners The book features a racial trauma assessment toolkit including a race based traumatic stress symptoms scale and interview schedule Useful for both scholars and practitioners including social workers educators and counselors Measuring the Effects of Racism offers a new framework of race based traumatic stress that helps legitimize psychological reactions to experiences of racism Counternarratives of Pain and Suffering as Critical Pedagogy Ardavan Eizadirad,Andrew Campbell,Steve Sider,2022-07-04

Foregrounding diverse lived experiences and non dominant forms of knowledge this edited volume showcases ways in which narrating and sharing stories of pain and suffering can be engaged as critical pedagogy to challenge oppression and inequity in educational contexts The volume illustrates the need to consider both the act of narrating and the experience of bearing witness to narration to harness the full transformative potentials of counternarratives in disrupting oppressive practices Chapters are divided into three parts Telling and Reliving Trauma as Pedagogy Pedagogies of Overcoming Silence and Forgetting as Pedagogy illustrating a range of relational pedagogical and methodological approaches including journaling poetry and arts based narrative inquiry The authors make the argument that the language of pain and suffering is universal hence its potential as critical pedagogy for transformative and therapeutic teaching and learning Readers are encouraged to reflect on their own lived experiences to constructively engage with their pain suffering and trauma Focusing on trauma informed non hegemonic storytelling and transformative pedagogies this volume will be of interest to students faculty scholars and community members with an interest in advancing anti oppressive and social justice education Southern Mercy Annette Louise Bickford,2017-01-06

From the late nineteenth to mid twentieth century juvenile reformatories served as citizen building institutions and a political tool of state racism in post emancipation America New South advocates cemented their regional affiliation by using these reformatories to showcase mercies which were racialized gendered and linked to sexuality Southern Mercy uses four historical examples of juvenile reformatories in North Carolina to explore how spectacles of mercy have influenced Southern modernity Working through archival material pertaining to race and moral uplift including rare photos from the private archives of Samarcand Manor the State Home and Industrial Manor for Girls and restricted archival records of reformatory racial policies Annette Bickford examines the limits of emancipation and the exclusions inherent in liberal humanism that distinguish racism in the contemporary post race era Race, Racialization, and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond

Genevieve Fuji Johnson,Randy Enomoto,2007-06-23 The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them

Canadian Perspectives on the Sociology of Education Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2009 This collection of original essays examines the complex relationship between schooling and society By taking a critical approach the text urges readers to formulate difficult questions about the practice of teaching and the experience of schooling The text also illustrates the multiple forces that come into play for both educators and for students and challenges the reductive and pragmatic approach adopted in conventional education courses
