Maher, Gaynor Macdonald, 2012-11-12 This is the first in depth study of the other Japan the diverse and complex culture that belies the conventional portrayal of Japan as a homogenous entity Moving fascinating and surprising this book sets out the largely untold story of the cultural ethnic and linguistic diversity found in Japan today where members of marginal societal groups are ignored by the mainstream on the grounds of physical ethnic religious or other differences Among them are the Ainu Koreans Buraku women returnees and the deaf for all of whom this work serves as a forum to give eloquent voice to their history and present situation This unique study describes the existing plurality in Japan in order to start balancing the perspectives which currently exist in the non Japanese literature about Japan to challenge the myth of Japanese uniqueness by focusing on very common experiences that Japanese people share with peoples in other parts of the world and above all to counteract the common tendency to see complexity as a threat by illustrating the value to society as a whole of diversity and cultural plurality Bencab Alfred A. Yuson, 2002 The Fookien Times Philippines Yearbook ,1982 Contemporary Japanese Film Mark Schilling, 1999-11-01 This comprehensive look at Japanese cinema in the 1990s includes nearly four hundred reviews of individual films and a dozen interviews and profiles of leading directors and producers Interpretive essays provide an overview of some of the key issues and themes of the decade and provide background and context for the treatment of individual films and artists In Mark Schilling s view Japanese film is presently in a period of creative ferment with a lively independent sector challenging the conventions of the industry mainstream Younger filmmakers are rejecting the stale formulas that have long characterized major studio releases reaching out to new influences from other media television comics music videos and even computer games and from both the West and other Asian cultures In the process they are creating fresh and exciting films that range from the meditative to the manic offering hope that
