The Theology of Ethnocultural Empathic Turn Branko Sekulic, 2024-10-15 The Theology of Ethnocultural Empathic Turn Getting to the Core of Sacralized Crime delves into the roots of ethnoreligious tensions in the former Yugoslav territories and it provides a comprehensive understanding of this specific politico religious issue exposing how the sacralization of ethnonational mythology influences present day conflicts Through meticulous analysis the author examines the intertwining of ethno totalitarianism and ethno clericalism in mentioned areas Transitioning from historical analysis to proposing a solution the author advocates for an ethnocultural empathy turn integrating ethnocultural empathy as a branch of social psychology with the example of Jesus's turn in Matthew 15 21 28 This book contributes significantly to developing the first Balkan contextual theology drawing upon new political theology and theologies of liberation

A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe Balázs Trencsényi, Michal Kopeček, Luka Lisjak Gabrijelčič, Maria Falina, Mónika Baár, Maciej Janowski, 2018-10-18 A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe is a synthetic work authored by an international team of researchers covering twenty national cultures and 250 years It goes beyond the conventional nation centered narratives and presents a novel vision especially sensitive to the cross cultural entanglement of political ideas and discourses Its principal aim is to make these cultures available for the global market of ideas and revisit some of the basic assumptions about the history of modern political thought and modernity as such The present volume is a sequel to Volume I Negotiating Modernity in the Long Nineteenth Century It begins with the end of the Great War depicting the colorful intellectual landscape of the interwar period and the increasing political and ideological radicalization culminating in the Second World War Taking the war experience both as a breaking point but in many ways also a transmitter of previous intellectual traditions it maps the intellectual paradigms and debates of the immediate postwar years marked by a negotiation between the democratic and communist agendas as well as the subsequent processes of political and cultural Stalinization Subsequently the post Stalinist period is analyzed with a special focus on the various attempts of de Stalinization and the rise of revisionist Marxism and other critical projects culminating in the carnivalesque but also extremely dramatic year of 1968 This volume is followed by Volume II Negotiating Modernity in the Short Twentieth Century and Beyond Part II 1968 2018

Migration, New Nationalisms and Populism Rada Ivekovic, 2022-01-20 This book examines the antagonistic relationship between new European nationalisms as these often go hand in hand with populism and the phenomenon of migration Migration has become a significant issue both in Europe and the whole world Although it has always existed much of public opinion sees it now as a problem The latter has been exaggerated through a crisis in hospitality exacerbated by the relatively recently constructed and misplaced feeling of a civilisational threat from Islam Migration is then countered by the escalation of new nationalisms at least some of which are supported by populism This book offers an understanding of this conjunction of migration and nationalism in the post cold war European context More specifically the book takes up how the end of the simplified cold war cognitive binary means an unprecedented epistemological confusion and depoliticisation which takes migration as its target but could resort to other targets too. Discussing the postcolonial background to the new migrations the book also considers women's rights, postsocialism and the relevance of the current pandemic as the issue of migration is addressed in the context of the European crisis-ridden present. This wide-ranging interrogation of how contemporary European migration is conceived and understood will appeal to students, academics, activists, policy makers and others with interests in contemporary migration, new nationalisms, populism, feminism, colonial, postcolonial and decolonial issues as well as socialism and postsocialism.

The Reception of Northrop Frye, 2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye's influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete, his work buried in obscurity. This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton's 1983 rhetorical question: 'Who now reads Frye?' In The Reception of Northrop Frye, Robert D. Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye: books, articles, translations, dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye's work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate. Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye's reception in front of us, such as Hayden White's theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almon's theory of musical narrative. The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton's rhetorical question is a very large and growing number: the growth being not incremental but exponential.

Attached to Dispossession: Sacrificial Narratives in Post-imperial Europe, Vladimir Biti, 2017-12-18 After the First World War, East Central Europe underwent an extensive geopolitical reconfiguration resulting in highly turbulent environments in which political sacrificial narratives found a breeding ground. They engaged various groups' experiences of dispossession, energizing them for the wars against their perpetrators. By knitting together their frustrations and thus creating new foundational myths, these narratives introduced new imagined communities. Their mutual competition established a typically post-imperial traumatic constellation that generated discontent, frustrations and anxieties. Within the various constituencies that structured it through their interaction, this book focuses on literary narratives of dispossession which, placed at its nodes, develop much subtler technologies than their political counterparts. They are interpreted as individual and clandestine oppositions to the homogenizing pattern of public narratives.

Filosofija palanke Radomir Konstantinović, 1980 Globalizacija, akulturacija i identiteti na Balkanu, 2002 Serbia's Secret War Philip J. Cohen, 1996 An entire piece of Serbian history is missing. And in the middle of the latest Yugoslav war, Europe's worst blood bath since World War II, Serbian politicians, propagandists and revisionist historians have made a cynical attempt at replacing the missing piece by rewriting the Holocaust record. They claim that Serbs were not Nazi collaborators in genocide but purely victims of the same atrocities that befell the Jews and that Serbian aspirations for a Greater Serbia are not driven by a murderous nationalistic hatred but rather are propelled by a victim's desire to lay claim to a safe homeland a Serbian Promised Land Thus has the current spilling of blood been justified Philip J Cohen argues that the existence of such a propaganda campaign emanating from Belgrade began in the earliest days of the post World War II era and since then has been reflected in the world media as well as in popular commentary and scholarly analysis More astonishing is that this campaign has been widely successful particularly in Israel Remarkable for its broad portrayal and penetrating examination of the Yugoslav social and political experience Serbia s Secret War draws heavily on documents that have been previously unavailable to the West Some of the written record has been translated and is published here for the first time Destined to be regarded as an important contribution to the field Cohen s careful study of the Serbian role in the Second World War will dramatically alter how scholars policy makers and the general public view the bloodshed in the former Yugoslavia and how they will come to understand the reasons behind it BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      The Philosophy of Parochialism Radomir Konstantinovic,2021-10-07 Available for the first time in English an essay with important insights on the sources of totalitarianism intolerance and racism      Islamic Studies ,1997      Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1970 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards      Ethnic and Regional Conflicts in Yugoslavia and Transcaucasia Ivan Iveković,2000      MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,1974 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969      Fear, Death, and Resistance Lada Čale Feldman,Ines Prica,Reana Senjković,1993      Canadian Slavonic Papers ,1991      Bibliographic Guide to Soviet and East European Studies ,1980      The Center for Research Libraries Catalogue: Heydr - Morris, Sir Henry Center for Research Libraries (U.S.),1969      The Destruction of Alternatives Eric D.
