Film Theory Creating A Cinematic Grammar Short Cuts:

Film Theory Felicity Colman, 2014-09-16 Film Theory addresses the core concepts and arguments created or used by academics critical film theorists and filmmakers including the work of Dudley Andrew Raymond Bellour Mary Ann Doane Miriam Hansen bell hooks Siegfried Kracauer Raul Ruiz P Adams Sitney Bernard Stiegler and Pier Paolo Pasolini This volume takes the position that film theory is a form of writing that produces a unique cinematic grammar and like all grammars it forms part of the system of rules that govern a language and is thus applicable to wider range of media forms In their creation of authorial trends identification of the technology of cinema as a creative force and production of films as aesthetic markers film theories contribute an epistemological resource that connects the technologies of filmmaking and film composition This book explores these connections through film theorisations of processes of the diagrammatisation the systems methodologies concepts histories of cinematic matters of the filmic world The Gangster Film Ron

Wilson, 2014-12-16 This volume examines the gangster film in its historical context with an emphasis on the ways the image of the gangster has adapted and changed as a result of socio cultural circumstances From its origins in Progressive era reforms to its use as an indictment of corporate greed the gangster film has often provided a template for critiquing American ideas and values concerning individualism success and business acumen The gangster genre has also been useful in critically examining race and ethnicity in American culture in terms of otherness Films studied include Musketeers of Pig Alley 1912 The Racket 1928 The Captive City 1952 The Godfather Part Two 1974 Goodfellas 1990 and Killing Them Softly 2012

The Road Movie Neil Archer, 2016-01-12 Though often seen as one of America's native cinematic genres the road movie has lent itself to diverse international contexts and inspired a host of filmmakers As analyzed in this study from its most familiar origins in Hollywood the road movie has become a global film practice whether as a vehicle for exploring the relationship between various national contexts and American cinema as a means of narrating different national and continental histories or as a form of individual filmmaking expression Beginning with key films from Depression era Hollywood and the New Hollywood of the late 1960s and then considering its wider effect on world cinemas this volume maps the development and adaptability of an enduring genre studying iconic films along the way Prison Movies Kevin

Kehrwald, 2017-02-14 Prison Movies Cinema Behind Bars traces the public fascination with incarceration from the silent era to the present Often considered an offshoot of the gangster film the prison film precedes the gangster film and is in many ways its opposite Rather than focusing on tragic figures heading for a fall the prison film focuses on fallen characters seeking redemption The gangster's perverse pursuit of the American dream is irrelevant to the prisoner for whom that dream has already failed At their core prison films are about self preservation at the hands of oppressive authority Like history itself prison films display long stretches of idleness punctuated by eruptions of violence dangerous moments that signify liberation and the potential for change The enclosed world of the prison is a highly effective microcosm one that forces characters and audiences alike to confront vexing issues of race class gender and sexuality These portrayals of men and women behind bars have thrived because they deal with such fundamental human themes as freedom individuality power justice and mercy Films examined include The Big House 1930 I Want to Live 1958 The Defiant Ones 1958 Cool Hand Luke 1967 Midnight Express 1978 Escape from Alcatraz 1979 The Shawshank Redemption 1994 and Starred Up 2013 The Pop Musical Alberto Mira,2021-11-09 After Hollywood and Tin Pan Alley s iron grip on the movie musical began to slip in the face of pop s cultural dominance many believed that the musical genre entered a terminal decline and finally wore itself out by the 1980s Though the industrial model of the musical was disrupted by the emergence of pop the Hollywood musical has not gone extinct Many Hollywood productions from the 1960s to the present have revisited the forms and conventions of the classic musical except instead of drawing from showtunes and jazz standards they employ the styles and iconography of pop Alberto Mira offers a new account of how pop music revolutionized the Hollywood musical He shows that while the Hollywood system ceased producing large scale traditional musicals different pop strains disco rock n roll doo wop glam and hip hop renewed the genre giving it a new life While the classical musical presented a world light on conflict defined by theatricality and where effortless talent can shine through the introduction of pop spurred musicals to address contemporary social and political conditions Mira traces the emergence of a new set of themes such as the painful hard work depicted in Dirty Dancing 1987 the double edged fandom of Velvet Goldmine 1998 and the racial politics of Dreamgirls 2006 to explore why the Hollywood musical has found renewed relevance Fate in Film Thomas M. Puhr,2022-10-18 The course of events is predetermined and cannot be changed Forces beyond our control or even our comprehension shape our fates Such is the deterministic worldview embedded in a wide swath of contemporary cinema from arthouse experiments to popular genre films through both thematic concerns and narrative structures These films especially the recent spate of elevated science fiction and horror tap into this deep seated anxiety by focusing on characters who ultimately fail to transcend the patterns and structures that define them Thomas M Puhr identifies and analyzes the ways that cinema has dealt with the tension between fate and free will from Stanley Kubrick s The Shining to Christopher Nolan s Tenet He examines films that express deterministic ideas including circular narratives of stasis or confinement and fatalistic portraits of external forces dictating characters lives Puhr considers determinism at the levels of the individual the family and society reading films in which characters are trapped by past or alternate selves the burdens of family histories or oppressive social structures He explores how films such as Joel and Ethan Coen s Inside Llewyn Davis Ari Aster s Hereditary Jordan Peele s Us and Lucrecia Martel s Zama confront the limits of human agency Puhr relates deterministic themes to the nature of moviegoing In denying characters any ability to choose alternative paths these films mirror how viewers themselves can only sit and watch Recasting the works of some of today s most compelling directors Fate in Film is an innovative critical account of an unrecognized yet crucial aspect of contemporary cinema Remapping World Cinema Stephanie Dennison,Song Hwee Lim,2006 Covering a broad scope this collection examines the cinemas of Europe East Asia India Africa and Latin America and will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies as well as to film enthusiasts keen to explore a wider range of world cinema Jacket How to Read a Film James Monaco,1977 Orientation to Cinema W.
