

1. How did the British Empire's impact on Africa differ from the American Empire's impact on Latin America?

British ruled Africa directly. These colonial territories were ruled with the idea in mind to develop trading relationships. Almost three-quarters of British colonies were created.

How did the British rule Africa differently?

1. British colonies: "indirect" control & strategy
 - ↳ British Empire ruled from a King
2. Colonization policy: economic-oriented approach
 - ↳ The focus was on creating trading relationships with the colonies. The colonies were seen as a source of raw materials and as a market for British goods.
3. Effect on African culture in the new colonies
 - ↳ African culture & religion were largely ignored.
4. Economic development: British saw that "the colonies were a rich source of raw materials" and that they could be developed into a source of manufactured goods.
5. Effect on education that British saw that "the colonies were a rich source of raw materials" and that they could be developed into a source of manufactured goods.
6. Effect on culture that British saw that "the colonies were a rich source of raw materials" and that they could be developed into a source of manufactured goods.
