Hartley, 2018-08-01 The Lost Soldier offers a perspective on World War II we don't always get from histories and memoirs Based on the letters home of Pete Lynn the diary of his wife Ruth and meticulous research in primary and secondary sources this book recounts the war of a married couple who represent so many married couples so many soldiers in World War II The book tells the story of this couple starting with their life in North Carolina and recounting how the war increasingly insinuated itself into the fabric of their lives until Pete Lynn was drafted after which the war became the essential fact of their life Author Chris J Hartley intricately weaves together all threads soldier and wife home front and army life combat love and loss individual and army division into an intimate engaging narrative that is at once gripping military history and engaging social history Ruth Fielding at the War Front Alice B. elements of adventure and mystery as Ruth Fielding a young and courageous protagonist embarks on a mission to find a missing soldier on the war front Emerson's vivid descriptions and engaging storytelling style transport readers to the harsh realities of wartime Europe making this book a compelling read for fans of early 20th century fiction The plot unfolds with unexpected twists and turns keeping readers on the edge of their seats until the very end Alice B. Emerson a pseudonymous author known for her popular girls series books brings a unique perspective to the war narrative through the eyes of a strong female character like Ruth Fielding Emerson's background in writing children's literature shines through in her ability to capture the imagination of young readers while also addressing important themes of loyalty courage and sacrifice I highly recommend Ruth Fielding at the War Front or The Hunt for the Lost Soldier to those interested in historical fiction particularly stories that explore the impact of war on individuals Emerson's portrayal of Ruth Fielding's journey is both poignant and inspiring making this book a must read for fans of early 20th century literature

Missing in Action: The 50 Year Search for Ireland's Lost Soldier Ralph Riegel, John O'Mahony, 2010-08-23 The interior of the old Ford armoured car stank of sweat blood and acrid smoke Pat's eyes desperately struggled to focus in the gloom of the biting cordite fog On 15 September 1961 Trooper Patrick Mullins was posted missing after the bloody ambush of an Irish UN convoy in a suburb of Elisabethville in the Katanga province of the Congo The circumstances of that fateful day have remained shrouded in confusion and contradiction for five decades until now Missing in Action reveals for the first time how an ill equipped and heavily out gunned Irish soldier fought with astonishing courage against heavily armed and ruthless Katangan gendarmes Through interviews with the survivors and access to military intelligence sources the truth about Trooper Mullins heroic last stand and ultimate fate can now be told

Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter. Year Book, 1919 Ruth Fielding at the War Front Alice B. Emerson, 2023-07-17 It was a midwinter day yet the air was balmy The trees were bare limbed but with a haze clothing them in the distance that seemed almost that of returning verdure The grass even in mid winter showed green A bird sang lustily in the hedge Up the grassy lane walked a girl in the costume of the active Red Cross worker an intelligent looking girl with a face that although perhaps not perfect in form was possessed of an expression that was alluring Neither observant man nor woman would have passed her even in a crowd without a second glance There was a cheerful light in her eye and a humorous curve to her not too full lips that promised an uplifting spirit within her even in serious mood It seemed as though this day and its apparent peace must breed happiness although it was but a respite in the middle of winter The balmy air the chirrup of the bird the far flung reaches of the valley which she could see from this mounting lane all delighted the senses and soothed the spirit Suddenly with an unexpectedness that was shocking there was a tremor in the air and the echo of a rumbling sound beneath the girl's feet The crack of a distant explosion followed Then another and another until the sound became a continual grumble of angry explosions resonant and threatening The girl did not stop but the expression of her face lost its cheerfulness The song of the bird was cut off sharply It seemed as though the sun itself began drawing a veil over his face The peaceful mood of nature was shattered
