Contemporary Intelligence in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa, 2024-08-08 The edited volume examines contemporary intelligence and tradecraft in Africa The work offers a timely and empirically grounded account of African intelligence It provides a multi contributor narrative that explains contemporary dynamics without discounting historical and external influences as well as explaining systemic dynamics borne by African agency The volume features chapters on different issues and themes in intelligence studies which include but are not limited to intelligence politicization covert operations and subversion during political transitions institutionalizing intelligence in post conflict states intelligence and counterterrorism financial intelligence and complex crimes intelligence professionalization media and intelligence intelligence humanization environmental intelligence and others The volume is geographically representative and features case studies from the five regions of Africa North Africa the Maghreb East Africa or Horn of Central Africa West Africa and Southern Africa Without following a specific theoretical orientation the book also aims to start a conversation around the prospects for a theory for African intelligence with the various chapters paying attention to the political social and economic nuances that have a bearing on contemporary intelligence in Africa This book will be of great interest to students of intelligence studies African politics security studies and IR

Policing Transnational Crime Saskia Hufnagel, Anton Moiseienko, 2020-06-04 As the threats posed by organised crime and terrorism persist law enforcement authorities remain under pressure to suppress the movement or flows of people and objects that are deemed dangerous This collection provides a broad overview of the challenges and trends of the policing of flows How these threats are constructed and addressed by governments and law enforcement agencies is the unifying thread of the book The concept of flows is interpreted broadly so as to include the trafficking of illicit substances trade in antiquities and legal and illegal migration including cross border travel by members of organised crime groups or foreign fighters The book focuses especially on the responses of governments and law enforcement agencies to the changing nature and intensity of flows The contributors comprise a mix of lawyers sociologists historians and criminologists who address both formal legal and practical on the ground approaches to the policing of flows The volume invites reflection on whether the existing tool kit of governments and law enforcement agencies is adequate in this changing environment and how it could be modernised for example by increased reliance on technology or by reappraising the role of the private sector As such the book will be useful not only for academics and practitioners who work on security related matters but also more generally to those who are interested in what the near term future of policing is likely to look like and how the balance between law enforcement on the one hand and human rights and civil liberties on the other can be achieved Global Policing and Transnational Law Enforcement Ben Bowling, James W.E.

Sheptycki, 2015-10-29 The study of policing and law enforcement practices that transcend national boundaries has become a vibrant and growing area of interest for police studies criminology sociology political science international relations and law The aim of this SAGE major work is to set out an interdisciplinary theoretical framework delineate the emerging architecture of transnational policing and provide a comprehensive explanation of the law enforcement surveillance and other practices involved in the policing of global problems This collection brings together literature which develops theoretical perspectives on this topic from various disciplines together with articles presenting empirical case studies illustrating the forms functions and effects of the new transnational policing The four volumes also examine the emergence of new forms of policing and explore the theoretical normative and substantive issues that are emerging in this rapidly developing field VOLUME 1 THEORISING GLOBAL POLICING AND TRANSNATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT INTERDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES VOLUME 2 THE STRUCTURES OF GLOBAL POLICING AND LAW ENFORCEMENT VOLUME 3 SPATIAL DIMENSIONS OF TRANSNATIONAL POLICING VOLUME 4 POLICING TRANSNATIONAL PROBLEMS Economic Crime Mark

Button, Branislav Hock, David Shepherd, 2022-04-24 This book is the first attempt to establish economic crime as a new sub discipline within criminology Fraud corruption bribery money laundering price fixing cartels and intellectual property crimes pursued typically for financial and professional gain have devastating consequences for the prosperity of economic life While most police forces in the UK and the USA have an economic crime department and many European bodies such as Europol use the term and develop strategies and structures to deal with it it is yet to gain traction as a widely used term in the academic community Economic Crime From Conception to Response aims to change that and covers definitions of the key premises of economic crime as the academic sub discipline within criminology an overview of the key research on each of the crimes associated with economic crime public private and global responses to economic crime across its different forms and sectors of the economy both within the UK and globally This book is an essential resource for students academics and practitioners engaged with aspects of economic crime as well as the related areas of financial crime white collar crime and crimes of the powerful Criminal Justice 1999-2000 Joseph L. Mallicoat,2022-11-22 Women Crime and Justice Core Concepts provides a complete and concise view into the world of women gender and the interaction with the criminal justice system Supported by contemporary research and discussions of issues around victimization criminalization and work within criminal justice author Stacy L Mallicoat explores a wide range of topics including rape and sexual assault crimes and processing of women and LGBTQ individuals and the impacts of gender in both the criminal justice and legal systems Searcher ,2003-07 Policing Across Borders George Andreopoulos,2012-12-09 Globalization has had a sharp impact on the definition of national security as the interconnectedness of many threats calls for them to be addressed at the national and global level simultaneously Law enforcement efforts must increasingly include elements of international and transnational communication and cooperation Police forces in different countries must find common ways to share data and track international crime trends This timely work analyzes key challenges confronting the law enforcement community with regards to international crime particularly illegal trafficking and terrorism The contributions in this volume are the result of a series of workshops that brought together international law enforcement officials researchers and representatives from intergovernmental organizations IGOs and non governmental organizations NGOs to examine the need for international police cooperation the specific challenges this presents and to propose solutions This work will be of interest to researchers in law enforcement criminal justice crime prevention and international relations Policing Global Regions Saskia Hufnagel,2021-01-26 This book provides a stocktake and comparative socio legal analysis of law enforcement cooperation strategies in four different regions of the world the European Union EU North America Greater China and Australasia The work analyses law enforcement cooperation mechanisms within the socio legal framework of global normmaking The strategies addressed range from legal frameworks facilitating cooperation to formal and informal police networks and cooperation practices The study also takes into account crime specific engagement for example campaigns focusing on drug crimes terrorism financial crime kidnappings and other offences It explores challenges in policing practice and human rights protection in each region that could be countered by existing strategies in another As regions usually develop more advanced cooperation mechanisms than exist at a global scale strategies found in the former could help find solutions for the latter To map existing strategies and assess their impact on both human rights and policing practice this study relies on an assessment of the primary and secondary literature sources in each region as well as interviews with practitioners ranging from senior police officers to prosecutors government officials customs and military staff This book presents a valuable resource for academics and postgraduate students as well as policing and criminal justice practitioners government officials and policy makers Choice ,2005 □□□□ , Crafting Transnational Policing Andrew Goldsmith,James Sheptycki,2007-11-16 The book examines the phenomenon of crafting transnational policing By this term is meant the different forms of engagement in policing reform by international donors national governments foreign police and law enforcement agencies in the domestic policing agencies and programs of recipient countries It includes inter alia peace keeping in post conflict situations reconstruction and capacity building as part of nation or state building exercises and the provision of technical assistance in relation to certain aspects of law enforcement In each instance there is a cross border provision of resources with a view to shaping the kind of policing provided in recipient nations Why do some countries engage in these activities Why has policing become a preferred form of foreign policy engagement in some countries What forms of policing development are provided How are they delivered And how are they received How should these kinds of assistance and or interventions be conducted in future In this regard is there a non negotiable core of good policing that needs to be developed and nurtured as an integral part of all defensible transnational policing engagements These are some of the questions raised by the contributions to this book The book arises primarily from papers presented at a workshop held in Onati Spain in July 2004 on the emergence of a global constabulary ethic The book has also been supplemented by two solicited chapters Global Policing Ben Bowling,James Sheptycki,2011-12-16 In the transitional networked society police power is no longer constrained by the borders of the nation state It has globalised Global Policing shows how security threats have been constructed by powerful actors to justify the creation of a new global policing architecture and how the subculture of policing shapes the world system Demonstrating how a theory of global policing is central to understanding global governance the text explores the new security agenda focused on serious organised crime and terrorism and how this is transforming policing the creation of global organisations such as Interpol regional entities such as Europol and national policing agencies with a transnational reach the subculture of the global cops blurring boundaries between police private security military and secret intelligence agencies the reality of transnational policing on the ground its effectiveness legitimacy accountability and future development Written by two leading international experts who bring cutting edge theoretical debates to life with case studies and examples Global Policing will prove captivating reading for students and scholars in criminology criminal justice international relations law and sociology Issues in Transnational Policing James Sheptycki,2002-01-04 Globalisation the wired planet the global village these are a few of the terms associated with the social and political changes that are said to describe the world at the beginning of the new millennium One of the most important institutions of the social ordering has been that of policing but very little has been written on how the practices of social control are affected by the processes of transnationalisation This book brings together contributions by experts on policing that focus on some of the newly emergent policing issues connected with these changes the global private security industry cross national networking between police the establishment of an international criminal court money laundering policing cyberspace the drug war Issues in Transnational Policing crosses the boundaries between criminology international relations and international law to provide a thought provoking picture of the complex issues surrounding the politics of policing in the future Comparative and International Policing, Justice, and Transnational Crime Sesha Kethineni,2010 Comparative and International Policing Justice and Transnational Crime provides a rich reservoir of thought provoking original articles written by international criminal justice policing and legal scholars Many of the articles not only share a central theme e g the policing of dependent sovereignties but also focus on how various issues are addressed by international treaties and policing or law enforcement agencies The articles are drawn from historical contemporary and controversial topics The main objectives are to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of various international issues from historical to contemporary perspectives incorporate topics that are important yet ignored in many international criminal justice books and generate scholarly discussion among students Chapter 1 introduces students to various theories of justice and international law which is crucial to understanding the moral foundation of international law and how fairness and justice are part of international law Chapters 2 and 3 provide readers with critical yet rarely discussed topics such as regulatory agencies treaties and sanctions the new sovereignty and extra judicial renditions sovereign lawlessness The role of international justice and law enforcement organizations and important topics of policing of American Indians subordinate sovereignties and aboriginal population in Canada are included Students are also introduced to the principle of jus cogens a body of fundamental norms of international law that applies to all states and discusses how this concept is related to the universal jurisdiction Specific jus cogens crimes such as human trafficking slavery and bonded labor maritime piracy and crimes against humanity are discussed Important human rights issues including genocide and the human rights violations of minorities in Europe Roma and India Dalits are high lighted Not only specific international crimes such as terrorism drug trafficking cyber crime hijacking environmental crimes crimes against cultural heritage are discussed but the international response in terms of laws treaties and policing are also emphasized This is a time of fast paced change on the global stage especially with respect to issues of crime law and justice There is a consequent need to examine and re examine national and international laws and institutions charged with responding to these issues This book does just that and beautifully It is especially exciting to see the representation of new younger scholars included here who have taken up the task Jim Finckenauer Professor II Rutgers School of Criminal Justice Readers looking for a comprehensive review of the state of the art issues in international law enforcement and justice issues will find it in this book It significantly enhances our knowledge of policing and subordinate sovereignties the role of international justice organizations human rights violations against minority groups and the more contemporary topics of war crimes terrorism maritime piracy and human trafficking It is fascinating reading for all those who are interested in keeping pace with the growing field of worldwide problems in criminal justice Freda Adler Ph D Director Master of Science Program in Criminology University of Pennsylvania The Teacher s Manual is available electronically on a CD or via email Please contact Beth Hall at bhall@cap.press.com to request a copy
