Electronic Sinhala:

Inhabiting an Embattled Body Jani de Silva, 2023-04-06 This book offers an anthropological account of Sri Lanka's Eelam Wars III and IV. It is based on the life narratives of ex-servicemen who fought on the frontlines. The volume approaches militarism as a practice of masculinity. It explores the sense of embattlement that young recruits feel, which stems from the inner war between notions of bodily deference instilled in childhood and having to conduct offensives on the battlefield. Thus, though they wish to move smoothly into the assault techniques learnt in combat training, they sometimes find their bodies are acting out a different trajectory, engaging in acts of spectacular violence or simply running away. It traverses themes such as masculinity and Sinhala society, British martial masculinity vs. the composed body in Sinhala discourse, combat training and the battlefield. The author traces the ways in which troops tried to negotiate the thin line between valour and violence in a context in which the enemy's suicide fighters engaged in the more extreme code of sacrificing the body, which derided the very manliness of soldiers who couldn't prevail against them. She argues that the Sri Lankan experience has resonance for soldiers on battlefields everywhere who become embattled when confronted by adversaries whose practice seems to diminish their own manliness. Rich in ethnographical narratives, this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of war studies, gender studies, masculinity studies, peace and conflict studies, ethnic studies, political science, international relations, sociology, social anthropology, cultural studies, and South Asian studies, especially those concerned with Sri Lanka. History of Computing and Education 3 (HCE3) John Impagliazzo, 2008-07-05 These proceedings derive from an international conference on the history of computing and education. This conference is the third of hopefully a series of conferences that will take place within the International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP) and hence we describe it as the Third IFIP Conference on the History of Computing and Education or simply History of Computing and Education 3 HCE3. This volume consists of a collection of articles presented at the HCE3 conference held in association with the IFIP 2008 World Computer Congress in Milano, Italy. Articles range from a wide variety of computing perspectives and they represent activities from six continents. The HCE3 conference is an event of the IFIP Working Group 9.7 on the History of Computing, a working group of IFIP's Technical Committee 9 TC9 on the Relationship between Computers and Society. In addition, it is in cooperation with the IFIP Technical Committee 3 TC3 on Education. The HCE3 conference brings to light a broad spectrum of issues. It illustrates topics in computing as they occurred in the early days of computing, whose ramifications or overtones remain with us today. Indeed, many of the early challenges remain part of our educational tapestry; most likely, many will evolve into future challenges. Therefore, these proceedings provide additional value to the reader as it will reflect in part the future development of computing and education to stimulate new ideas and models in educational development. The Sinhalese Nandadeva Wijesekera, 1990 Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh, 2015-04-09 The two volumes LNCS 9041 and 9042 constitute the proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Computational Linguistics.
