and air forces of several Allied nations and this is the story of one part during the decisive mid war period Nos 10 and 461 Squadrons of the Royal Australian Air Force flew Sunderland flying boats from bases in Wales and Devon as part of RAF Coastal Command these two squadrons flew long range daylight missions over the eastern Atlantic patrolling Britain's southwest approaches They hunted and killed U boats transiting between their mid Atlantic hunting grounds and their bases in Bordeaux and fought furious air battles over the Bay of Biscay against Luftwaffe Ju 88 long range fighters tasked specifically with shooting them down These two Australian squadrons established a combat record

Darwin Spitfires
 Anthony Cooper, 2013-10-23 The Japanese air raids on Darwin on 19 February 1942 are well known to most Australians although not perhaps to the rest of the world What happened afterwards however remains unknown to many This publication attempts to illuminate this little known period of war history charting the exploits losses and successes of the RAF's No 1 Fighter Wing and the contribution they made to the allied war effort The stalwart Spitfire is celebrated in a narrative that is sure to appeal widely For almost two years the airspace over North West Australia was routinely penetrated by Japanese raids tallying about 70 in total The 1942-43 air raids on Darwin constituted the only sustained and intensive direct assault on Australian mainland territory in the whole of World War II and the whole history of post 1788 Australia yet surprisingly most Australians have no idea that it ever happened And the rest of the world are yet more so in the dark Telling the story of the RAF's No 1 Fighter Wing composed of both Australian and British Spitfire pilots Darwin Spitfires explores the little known 1943 season of air combat over the top end recovering important aspects of Australian history It brings to the attention of the world the heroic exploits of the skilled pilots who did so much to protect Australia and support the Allied effort This important publication attempts to celebrate and commemorate the spirit of solidarity that characterized the experiences of No 1 Fighter Wing As featured in Aeroplane Monthly

Armies from Dunquerque The Battle of France was over but now there would have to be a Battle of Britain as Britain would now have to be eliminated as well either by diplomacy which wasn't likely or by invasion This was the prospect facing those in England at that time and this is the story of that momentous year      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
