

The background of the cover is a photograph of a vast, rolling landscape. In the foreground, a wide, light-brown dirt road with two distinct tracks curves from the bottom right towards the center of the image. The road is flanked by lush green grass. Beyond the road, the landscape consists of rolling green hills and valleys. Some areas appear to be fields, while others are covered in dense green trees or shrubs. In the distance, more hills are visible under a bright blue sky with scattered, fluffy white clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and expansive, suggesting a journey or exploration.

Exploring Ethics Steven M. Cahn, 2022-04-26 In this remarkably accessible concise and engaging introduction to moral philosophy Steven M Cahn brings together a rich balanced and wide ranging collection of fifty two readings on ethical theory and contemporary moral issues He has carefully edited all the articles to ensure that they will be exceptionally clear and understandable to undergraduate students The selections are organized into three parts Challenges to Morality Moral Theories and Moral Problems providing instructors with flexibility in designing and teaching a variety of ethics courses Each reading is followed by study questions

Exploring Philosophy Steven M. Cahn, 2023-08 Those who begin the study of philosophy may easily become discouraged Many classic texts are daunting in their complexity and much contemporary writing is intended primarily for a professional audience A few prominent philosophers of our day write in a style understandable by all but nonspecialists are often left unaware of this work They may never realize that serious discussion of central problems of philosophy can proceed without arcane terminology unexplained references or convoluted arguments The guiding principle of this book is that reading clear concise essays by recent philosophers offers an inviting avenue to understanding philosophical inquiry While some of the articles are reprinted in their entirety many are shortened to sharpen their focus and enhance their accessibility For readers who wish to understand the development of philosophy over the centuries I have included a substantial number of historical sources including without abridgement Plato's Defense of Socrates Crito and Meno as well as substantial segments from his Republic Descartes' Meditations on First Philosophy and Hume's An Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding and Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion Most of these are identified by the name of the work from which the selection is drawn while with regard to some of the recent essays I have taken the liberty of developing short descriptive titles Exploring Ethics Steven M. Cahn, 2025-02-27 Most believers and their critics agree that religious commitment relies on the acceptance of supernaturalism Steven M Cahn argues to the contrary He maintains that theism is neither necessary nor sufficient for adherence to a religious outlook He writes in a nonpolemical spirit about morality the problem of evil faith miracles heaven mystical experience and religious diversity His book develops a strong case for the reconciliation of science and religion From Student to Scholar Steven M. Lovering defines here as theistic inferentialists theistic non inferentialists and theistic fideists Theistic inferentialists believe that God exists that there is inferential probabilifying evidence of God s existence and that this evidence is discoverable not simply in principle but in practice Theistic non inferentialists believe that God exists that there is non inferential probabilifying evidence of God s existence and that this evidence is discoverable not simply in principle but in practice Theistic fideists believe that God exists that there is no discoverable probabilifying evidence inferential or non inferential of God s existence and that it is nevertheless acceptable morally if not otherwise to have faith that God exists Lovering argues that each type of theistic philosopher faces a problem unique to his type and that they all share two particular problems Some of these problems take us down an entirely new discursive path others down a new discursive path branching off from an old one Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,2011 List of members in v 1 Exploring Philosophy of Religion Steven M.
