Exploring Sociology Bruce Ravelli, Michelle Webber, 2014-12-29      Exploring Religion and Diversity in Canada Catherine Holtmann, 2018-06-25 This book is intended for advanced undergraduate and graduate students interested in learning about the many ways in which religious diversity is manifest in day to day life Canada Each chapter addresses the challenges and opportunities associated with religious diversity in a different realm of social life from families to churches from education to health care and from Muslims to atheists The contributors present key concepts relevant statistical data and real life stories from qualitative data The content of the book is supplemented by links to online learning resources including videos websites and photo essays      Ottawology Tonya K. Davidson, 2025-10-30T00:00:00Z Ottawa is often understood only as the seat of the federal government marked by the neo Gothic parliament buildings on the hill and the many government office buildings Lively erudite and exciting Ottawology offers a unique and radical approach to studying the city injecting it with intrigue and verve and expanding collective narrow understandings of Canada s capital city Tonya Davidson takes readers on a wide ranging journey through a city populated not only by power brokers but also workers students seniors trees eels turtles skaters and rabble rousers Davidson applies her prodigious sociological imagination to critically explore an essential but little understood city Davidson s Ottawa offers a fascinating template for how to scrutinize the interactions between the weight of history and the effervescent motion of everyday life in a city She draws surprising connections from the role of the civil service to the acceleration of suburban sprawl and the one time incredible success of the city s bus rapid transit system to stories of nightlife policing play libraries rivers and malls Davidson traverses the city s streets and hidden histories to show how social structures sustainability and social life intersect creating an elegant chronicle of the city s rich and fraught social life      The Age of Knowledge James Dzusah, Henry Etzkowitz, 2011-10-14 The Age of Knowledge emphasizes that the ongoing transformations of knowledge both within universities and for society more generally must be understood as a reflection of the larger changes in the constitutive social structures within which they are invariably produced translated and reproduced

Relation and Resistance Sailaja Krishnamurti, Becky R. Lee, 2021-09-30
 In Canada women's bodies are often at the centre of debates about religious pluralism multiculturalism and secularism Women have long played a critical role in building and maintaining diasporic religious communities and networks and they have also been catalysts for change and transformation within religious groups and the wider community Relation and Resistance explores the stories and lives of racialized women connected with religious diaspora communities in Canada Contributors from across disciplines show how women are conceptualizing traditions in transformative ways challenging prevailing assumptions about diasporic religion as nostalgically entrenched in the past The collected essays include chapters on feminist and queer women thinking critically about Hindu and Muslim identities and beliefs and challenging anti Black racism and settler colonialism Afro Caribbean and M tis writers using literature to explore religion and belonging the impact of women's participation in Japanese Chinese and Pakistani transnational religious organizations and marriage migration and gender equality in the Punjabi Sikh and Malayali Christian communities The volume closes with a chapter exploring M tis diasporic experience and inviting readers to think critically about diasporic religion on Indigenous land An innovative and timely volume Relation and Resistance reveals that a deeper understanding of women's experiences of displacement migration race and gender is critical to the study of religion in Canada

Questioning Sociology George Pavlich, Myra J. Hird, 2007 This eighteen chapter collection of original readings by leading Canadian scholars provides an introduction to sociological analysis by asking questions about concrete Canadian issues and linking them to fundamental sociological theories and problems of interest to contemporary sociologists These analyses serve to introduce a critical approach to a variety of experiences as well as the theoretical debates within the discipline
