Technological Challenges and Management Carolina Machado,J. Paulo Davim,2016-02-22 Today s organizations find themselves in a race to adopt new technologies in order to keep up with their competition However two questions must be answered Are these organizations ready for new technological advancements and are these new technologies appropriate for every organization Technological Challenges and Management Matching Human an Perspectives of Management Accounting for Sustainable Business Practices Oncioiu, Ionica,2022-06-30 In the 21st century management accounting gains new dimensions expanding its research area Additionally management of sustainable performance is one of the phenomena faced by the current business environment and in particular management corporations The focus of management on profitability remains the main objective of any company but it must also take into account the sustainability of social economic and environmental aspects Under these circumstances managerial decisions must be adjusted and strongly substantiated considering the information required by internal and external stakeholders including financial reporting The information requirements of customers and other stakeholders are steadily increasing and some companies face certain problems in implementing the concept of sustainability and environmental reporting Perspectives of Management Accounting for Sustainable Business Practices proposes an interdisciplinary perspective and explores various theoretical and practical approaches to management accounting and its impact in the 21st century on different areas of activity. It contrasts external financial accounting for government regulators and the investment community with internal management accounting for managers to leverage decision making. Covering topics such as corporate social responsibility disclosure issues and performance analysis, this premier reference source is an essential resource for business leaders and executives, accountants, financial controllers, business analysts, budgeting managers, students and faculty of higher education, librarians, researchers and academicians.

Assessment and Development Centres Iain Ballantyne, Nigel Povah, 2004. Since the first edition of this book, the level of interest and the varied forms of assessment and development centres have mushroomed. Iain Ballantyne and Nigel Povah's book looks at the entire process from the underlying concepts to the most effective methods of validation, not forgetting the organizational politics involved. The main objectives of the book are to establish a thorough understanding of the principles and practice of assessment and development centres to provide sufficient knowledge to enable practitioners to run their own events in a professional manner, to help readers to recognise when they may need to call on outside expertise and to equip readers to ask pertinent questions of any prospective advisers. This second edition includes guidance to reflect the significant developments within the technology along with further advice on quality control, process improvements and further refinements to the increasingly popular development centre concept. Assessment and Development Centres represents a practical approach which is sure of a warm welcome from HR professionals.
