Eagle Empire Story Waterloo:

The Eagle of the Empire: A Story of Waterloo Cyrus Townsend Brady, 2020-09-28 The Emperor walked nervously up and down the long low ceiled apartment the common room of the public inn at Nogent Grouped around a long table in the center of the room several secretaries were busy with orders reports and dispatches At one end stood a group of officers of high rank in rich uniforms whose brilliance was shrouded by heavy cloaks falling from their shoulders and gathered about them for the air was raw and chill despite a great fire burning in a huge open fireplace Their cloaks and hats were wet their boots and trousers splashed with mud and in general they were travel stained and weary They eyed the Emperor passing and repassing in gloomy silence mixed with awe In their bearing no less than in their faces was expressed a certain unwonted fierce resentment which flamed up and became more evident when the Emperor turned his back in his short restless march to and fro but which subsided as suddenly when he had them under observation By the door was stationed a young officer in the uniform of the Fifth Regiment of the infantry of the line He stood quietly at attention and was evidently there on duty From time to time officers orderlies and couriers came into the room bearing dispatches These were handed to the young officer and by him passed over to the Emperor Never since the days of Job had any man perhaps been compelled to welcome such a succession of bearers of evil tidings as Napoleon on that winter night The Emperor s face was pale always but there was an ashy grayness about his pallor in that hour that marked a difference His face was lined and seamed not to say haggard The mask of imperturbability he usually wore was down He looked old tired discouraged His usual iron self control and calm had given place to an overwhelming nervousness and incertitude He waved his hands he muttered to himself his mouth twitched awry from time to time as he walked Well messieurs he began at last in sharp rather high pitched notes even his voice sounded differently as he lifted his eyes from perusing the latest dispatch and faced the uneasy group by the fireplace you are doubtless anxious to know the news The Emperor stepped over to the table as he spoke and gathered up a handful of dispatches and ran over them with his hands It is all set forth here The Germans and the English have shut up Carnot in Antwerp he continued rapidly throwing one paper down The Bourbons have entered Brussels he threw another letter upon the table Belgium you see is lost Bernadotte has taken Denmark Macdonald is falling back on pernay his weak force growing weaker every hour Yorck who failed us once before is hard on his heels with twice thrice the number of his men Sacken is trying to head him off The King of Naples seeks to save the throne on which I established him by withdrawing from me now the poor fool The way to Paris along the Marne is open and Bl cher is marching on the capital with eighty thousand Russians Prussians and Bavarians Schwarzenburg with many more is close at hand

The Eagle of the Empire Cyrus Townsend Brady, 2017-12-24 Excerpt from The Eagle of the Empire A Story of Waterloo The Battle of Waterloo which was fought just one hundred years ago and with which the story in this book ends is popularly regarded as one of the decisive battles of the world particularly with reference to the career of the greatest of all Captains Personally some study has led me to believe that Bautzen was really the decisive battle of the Napoleonic wars If the Emperor had there won the overwhelming victory to which his combinations and the fortunes of war entitled him he would still have retained his Empire Whether he would have been satisfied or not is another question and anyway as I am practically alone among students and critics in my opinions about Bautzen they can be dismissed And that he lost that battle was his own fault any way About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
