Early China/Ancient Greece Steven Shankman, Stephen W. Durrant, 2002-05-17 The first edited volume in Sino Hellenic studies this book compares early Chinese and ancient Greek thought and culture

Early China/Ancient Greece Steven Shankman, Stephen W. Durrant, 2012-02-01 This pioneering book compares Chinese and Western thought to offer a bracing and unpredictable cross cultural conversation The work contributes to the emerging field of Sino Hellenic studies which links two great and influential cultures that in fact had virtually no contact during the ancient period The patterns of thought and the cultural productions of early China and ancient Greece represent two significantly different responses to the myriad problems that human beings confront Throughout this volume the comparisons between these cultures evince two critical ideas First that thinking is itself an inherently comparative activity Through making comparisons the familiar becomes strange and the strange somewhat more familiar Second since we think through comparisons we should think them all the way through How valid and productive are the comparisons and contrasts made between particular works and different styles of thought that emerged from two different although contemporaneous cultural contexts

Ancient Greece and China Compared G. E. R. Lloyd, Jingyi Jenny Zhao, 2018-01-11 Ancient Greece and China Compared is a pioneering methodologically sophisticated set of studies bringing together scholars who all share the conviction that the sustained critical comparison and contrast between ancient societies can bring to light significant aspects of each that would be missed by focusing on just one of them The topics tackled include key issues in philosophy and religion in art and literature in mathematics and the life sciences including gender studies in agriculture city planning and institutions The volume also analyses how to go about the task of comparing including finding viable comparanda and avoiding the trap of interpreting one culture in terms appropriate only to another The book is set to provide a model for future collaborative and interdisciplinary work exploring what is common between ancient civilisations what is distinctive of particular ones and what may help to account for the latter

Divination and Prediction in Early China and Ancient Greece Lisa Raphals, 2013-10-17 This book compares the intellectual and social history and past and present contexts of mantic practices divination in Chinese and Greek antiquity

Divination and Prediction in Early China and Ancient Greece Lisa Ann Raphals, 2013 This book is an exploration of divination and prediction in Chinese and Greek antiquity but it is also a part of two ongoing interdisciplinary and intercultural explorations that have informed my scholarly work One is the engagement between the disciplines of philosophy and history from a perspective also informed by anthropology The other is the comparative study of Chinese and Greek antiquity from a shifting viewpoint informed by all three disciplines Divination and Prediction in Early China and Ancient Greece Professor Lisa Raphals, 2014-05-14 Compares the intellectual and social history and past and present contexts of mantic practices divination in Chinese and Greek antiquity The Way and the Word Geoffrey Ernest Richard Lloyd, Nathan Sivin, 2002-01-01 The rich civilizations of ancient China and Greece built sciences of comparable sophistication each based on different foundations of concept method and organization In this engrossing book two world renowned scholars compare the cosmology science and medicine of China and Greece between 400 B C and A D 200 casting new light not only on the two civilizations but also on the evolving character of science Sir Geoffrey Lloyd and Nathan Sivin investigate the differences between the thinkers in the two civilizations what motivated them how they understood the cosmos and the human body how they were educated how they made a living and whom they argued with and why The authors new method integrally compares social political and intellectual patterns and connections demonstrating how all affected and were affected by ideas about cosmology and the physical world They relate conceptual differences in China and Greece to the diverse ways that intellectuals in the two civilizations earned their living interacted with fellow inquirers and were involved with structures of authority By A D 200 the distinctive scientific strengths of both China and Greece showed equal potential for theory and practice Lloyd and Sivin argue that modern science evolved not out of the Greek tradition alone but from the strengths of China Greece India Islam and other civilizations which converged first in the Muslim world and then in Renaissance Europe Ethnicity and Foreigners in Ancient Greece and China Hyunjin Kim, 2009-05-21 Argues that Greece was an integral part of the wider Eastern Mediterranean and Near Eastern civilization and that this had a major impact on the ways in which the Greeks chose to represent foreigners in their literature A Brief History of Chinese Civilization Conrad Schirokauer, Miranda Brown, 2005 Part I THE CLASSICAL CIVILIZATION OF CHINA 1 China In Antiquity The Neolithic The Origins of Chinese Writing The Rise of the Bronze Age The Shang The Western Zhou Dynasty The Book of Odes 2 Turbulent Times and Classical Thought The Spring and Autumn Period The Rise of Hegemons The Warring States Period The Hundred Schools Confucius Mozi Mencius Xunzi Laozi and Zhuangzi Han Feizi 3 The Early Imperial Period Qin Sources and Historiographical Problems Reappraisals Han The Formative Years The Quality of Han Rule The Xiongnu and Other Neighboring Peoples Intellectual Movements The Visual Art and Poetry Changes in Political Economy during the Han period Women Fall of the Han Part II CHINA IN A BUDDHIST AGE 4 China During The Period Of Disunity The Fundamentals of Buddhism A World in Disarray China Divided Buddhism in the North Daoism The Religion The South Poetry Calligraphy Painting Buddhism in the South China on the Eve of Unification 5 The Cosmopolitan Civilization Of The Sui And Tang 581 907 The Sui 581 617 The Tang Establishment Consolidation Gaozong Empress Wu High Tang Chang an The Flourishing of Buddhism Daoism The Rebellion of An Lushan 755 763 Li Bai Du Fu Late Tang Late Tang Poetry Culture Collapse of the Dynasty Part III LATE IMPERIAL EARLY MODERN 6 China During the Song 960 1279 The Founding A New Elite The Examination System The Northern Song

it was later celebrated as a sign that one took responsibility for things In ancient Greece hope did not always focus on a positive outcome and in this respect differed from what we call hope Daring not to do or undaring was itself an emotional value in early China While Aristotle regarded the inability to feel anger as servile the Roman Stoic Seneca rejected anger entirely Hatred and revenge were encouraged at one moment in China and repressed at another Ancient Greek responses to tragedy do not map directly onto modern emotional registers and yet are similar to classical Chinese and Indian descriptions There are differences in the very way emotions are conceived This book will speak to anyone interested in the many ways that human beings feel
