Genres And Genre Theory In Transition Specialized Discourses Across Media And Modes:

Genres and Genre Theory in Transition Giuliana Garzone, 2014 This volume features representative studies focusing on the evolution of text genres in corporate and professional communication Genre change is explored in various contexts in light of the increasing importance of new media and the profound social changes that have occurred in the last few decades Major theoretical issues are raised and discussed highlighting the need to reconsider the repertoire of conventions traditionally identified in each specific genre and to reassess and update the analytical tools used to investigate them about three decades after the emergence of genre analysis Frameworks for Discursive Actions and Practices of the Law Jan Engberg, Girolamo Tessuto, 2019-01-15 This volume provides descriptive and interpretive insights into the living usage of language and other semiotic modes in building and performing the law across academic professional and institutional contexts where issues arise from the meaning and function of legal texts discourse and genre in constituting and enabling conventions albeit dynamically and account for the socially and inter culturally influenced forms of discursive actions and practices The twenty contributions included here weave significant contexts and situations for legal discourse and practice into a tight thread and justify selected topic areas through a variety of approaches frameworks methodologies and procedures As such this publication is multidimensional and multiperspectival in its design and implementation of key issues confronting discursive actions and practices of the law and provides an invaluable resource for academics in a wider range of disciplines including linguistics applied linguistics and communication studies It will also be of interest to students of interdisciplinary discourse analysis Discourse In and Through the Media Marina Bondi, Silvia Cacchiani, 2016-01-14 This book is a result of the 2013 CLAVIER Conference held in Modena in November 2013 and includes a selection of the papers presented on that occasion As the title suggests this volume encourages cross generic and cross disciplinary investigations in order to advocate integrated approaches to the study of media discourse regarding both theoretical background and practical applications Bringing together a wide range of case studies the book fosters debate on a variety of aspects related to the representation of specialised discourse in and through the media including for example voice and point of view argumentative practices knowledge construction multimodality the re contextualization and re conceptualization of knowledge opinion formation and peer to peer communication and popularization in and through traditional digital and social media Taken together the contributions to this volume provide extensive exemplification of the type of research currently being conducted on these issues The variety of the questions posed and the wide array of methods used here therefore represent a substantial contribution to sharpening existing knowledge and furthering the ongoing debate among scholars in the field Discourse, Communication and the Enterprise Giuliana Elena Garzone, Walter Giordano, 2019-01-29 This volume presents research studies that investigate various aspects of corporate communication from the viewpoint of language and discourse giving special attention to emerging issues and recent developments in times of rapid sociotechnical evolutions The studies included here are diverse in their outlook analytical procedures and objects of enquiry spanning across various areas of corporate communication both external and internal such as corporate image and reputation management various forms of corporate behaviour branding at different levels including employer branding recruiting and consumer reviews Similarly diversified are the settings genres and media analysed from face to face interaction to communication through the press from traditional websites to social networking sites All the studies presented in this volume are set in a discourse analytical framework and share the ultimate purpose of providing new insights into the evolution of communication and discourse practices in the corporate environment taking account of the most important issues that have attracted researchers interest and are still open to debate

Challenging Leadership Stereotypes Through Discourse Cornelia Ilie, Stephanie Schnurr, 2017-08-31 This multidisciplinary volume brings together wide ranging empirical research that goes behind the scenes of diverse organizations dealing with business politics law media education and sports to unravel stereotypes of discursive leadership practices as they unfold in situ It includes contributions that explore how leadership discourse is impacted by increasing pressures of glocalization the need to communicate across cultures and languages mediatization leaving ubiquitous digital traces standardization with quality management programmes negotiating organizational procedures mobility endless fast paced long distance synchronization and acceleration permanent co adaption and change The discussion of purposefully chosen case studies moves beyond questions of who is a leader and what leaders do to how leadership stereotypes are being challenged in various communities of practice and thereby making change possible Cross cultural and interdisciplinary approaches are used to get deeper insights into the competing multi voiced controversial and complex identities and relationships enacted in leadership discourse practices

The Discursive Construal of Trust in the Dynamics of Knowledge Diffusion Rita Salvi, Judith Turnbull, 2017-05-11 This volume stems from a workshop organised by the Corpus Linguistics and Language Variation in English Research Centre known as CLAVIER held at the Sapienza University of Rome Italy It brings together a series of double reviewed studies on the nature of the dissemination of specialist knowledge in English its transformation from being a mere repository of information into a proactive source of understanding and empowerment Through the chapters the various principles conceptualisations constructs and pragmatic dynamics of knowledge dissemination are shown in a range of discourse genres The studies reveal the multi levels of knowledge its varied typology and its ongoing co construction maintenance and updating among heterogeneous audiences Assuming that maintaining credibility and legitimacy is fundamental to successful communication in a globalised and virtual world the essential complementary aspect to knowledge dissemination is the analysis of the language that builds trust in interpersonal interactions in different contexts and settings The first section of the book deals with the building of trust through different strategies in political academic tourist and educational contexts The second discusses ways of building trust via linguistic devices in corporate communication The third part is concerned with the maintenance and repairing of trust and the fourth section presents the building repairing trust processes in the medical sector The collection is addressed to scholars of linguistics particularly those concerned with the analysis of specialized languages and their impact on effective communication It will also appeal to university teachers of English for Special Purposes and researchers interested in corpus linguistics and critical discourse analysis Teaching Business Discourse Cornelia Ilie,Catherine Nickerson,Brigitte Planken,2018-10-25 This book presents research in business discourse and offers pedagogical approaches to teaching business discourse in both classroom and consultancy contexts that address the key issues of dealing with different types of learners developing teaching materials and evaluation Drawing on the authors extensive experience of researching business discourse from a variety of different perspectives including pragmatics discourse analysis rhetoric and language for specific purposes it demonstrates how these approaches may be applied to teaching Each chapter includes a list of additional readings together with a number of practical tasks designed to help readers apply the materials presented Case studies are used throughout the book to illustrate the concepts thus equipping readers with a set of research tools to extend their own understanding of how language and communication operate in business contexts as well introducing them to a variety of research based ideas that can be translated easily into a classroom setting The book is cross cultural in scope as it includes perspectives from a range of different contexts It represents a significant advance in current literature and will provide a valuable resource for students and scholars of applied linguistics business communication and business discourse in addition to teachers of Business English Interpreting Across Genres Cynthia J. Kellett Bidoli,2012 Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2008 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1995 Sociological Abstracts ,1994 TLLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1992 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2008 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 British Humanities Index ,2009 Subject Index to Periodicals ,2009 Resources in Education ,1995 Professional Genres from an Interpersonal Perspective Christopher Hopkinson,Renáta Tomášková,Gabriela Zapletalová,2016-05-11 This volume brings together contributions focused on and shaped by two areas of linguistic research genre analysis and the interpersonal component of language and discourse It explores the interplay and interaction of genre and the interpersonal component revealing potential connections and interdependencies between genre conventions and the realisation of interpersonal meanings viewed from the perspective of the systemic functional approach to language and discourse analysis The contributions focus on a variety of aspects of the interpersonal in selected genres of professional discourse including not only communication among professionals but also genres produced by professionals to address non specialists The volume consists of nine chapters grouped into three sections guiding readers through four major discourse domains namely media discourse academic discourse institutional discourse and promotional discourse Institutional and promotional discourses are combined in a single section reflecting the hybridism of the majority of the genres under investigation here genres of institutional discourse typically exhibit features akin to advertising not only presenting the institutions in terms of the scope of their activities and services but also serving a clear promotional purpose The studies document how omnipresent varied and plentiful the strategies of intersubjective positioning are and how significant their position in genres and discourses invariably is The social and cultural grounding of genres requires them to be conventional yet it also ensures their flexibility continuous development and change qualities which make genres a permanent challenge and inspiration for research and discussion

Explorations in Specialized Genres Vijay Kumar Bhatia, Maurizio Gotti, 2006-01-01 Genre analysis has become firmly established as one of the most popular frameworks for the study of specialized genres in academic professional and institutional as well as other workplace contexts In recent years genre theory has also developed in the direction of a more comprehensive and powerful multi dimensional and multi perspectived framework to examine not only the text but also the context in a much more meaningful manner than had ever been done earlier The theoretical perspectives and the individual case studies of this volume testify to the wide range of methodological tools made available by genre theory enabling researchers to handle problems relating to the description of variations in language use Moreover the following relevant issues are addressed how are specialized genres constructed interpreted and exploited in the achievement of specific goals in highly specialized contexts

Worlds of Written Discourse Vijay Bhatia, 2014-09-11 The tension between the real world of written discourse and its representation in applied genre based literature is the main theme of this book The book addresses this theme from the perspectives of four rather different worlds the world of reality the world of private intentions the world of analysis and the world of applications Using examples from a range of situations including advertising business academia economics law book introductions reports media and fundraising Bhatia uses discourse analysis to move genre theory away from educational contexts and into the real world

Genres in the Internet Janet Giltrow, Dieter Stein, 2009-10-28 This volume brings together for the first time pragmatic rhetorical and literary perspectives on genre mapping theoretical frontiers and initiating a long overdue conversation amongst these methodologies The diverse approaches represented in this volume meet on common ground staked by Internet communication an arena challenging to traditional ideas of genre which assume a conventional stability at odds with the unceasing innovations of online discourse Drawing on and developing new ideas of genre the research reported in this volume shows on the contrary that genre study is a powerful means of testing commonplaces about the Internet world and in turn that the Internet is a fertile field for theorising genre
