Dissonant Voices Religious Pluralism And The Question Of Truth:

Dissonant Voices Harold A. Netland, 1999-04 Dissonant Voices Harold A Netland, 1991-12-12 Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland, 2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions An Introduction to the Theology of Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-08-20 How does Christianity relate to other religions Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity's relationship to world religions Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality Lewis E Winkler, 2012-04-26 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one another as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to understand appreciate and cooperate with each other to build just moral and cohesive communities of hope in our often uncertain and unsettling times The Perception of Christianity as a Rational Religion in Singapore Clive S. Chin, 2017-03-23 This book evaluates the common criticism that Christianity in Asia is westernized Since the 1980s Asian evangelical theologians and missiologists argue that the intrusion of Western theology is responsible for the Western and hence alien expressions of Christianity in Asia Yet in Singapore the number of Christians has increased over the last few decades Empirical evidence demonstrates that younger Chinese Singaporeans convert from Buddhism or Taoism to Christianity partly because they perceive it as a rational religion over Buddhism or Taoism which are viewed as irrational or superstitious Not only do many converts favor Christianity as a rational religion but they do not regard Christianity as a Western religion at the point of their conversion What accounts for those recent developments This study explores the processes of modernization and globalization as important factors impacting religious change in Singapore Personal contextual and structural elements actually influence one's religion of choice In facilitating effective mission one must qualify the use of the categories Asian and Western because religious and cultural boundaries overlap What matters most in missiology is discerning how the gospel of Jesus Christ engages the self understanding and lived realities of ethnic and religious others in diverse cultural settings The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization

Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

Beyond Opinion Ravi Zacharias, 2010-01-10 A definitive master work from the world's leading Christian apologist Respected apologist Ravi Zacharias was once sharing his faith with a Hindu when the man asked If the Christian faith is truly supernatural why is it not more evident in the lives of so many Christians I know The question hit hard and this book is an answer Its purpose is to equip Christians everywhere to simultaneously defend the faith and be transformed by it into people of compassion In addition to writing several chapters himself Ravi Zacharias brings together many of today's leading apologists and Christian teachers including Alister McGrath and John Lennox to address topics present in the very future of worldwide Christianity from the process of spiritual transformation to the challenges posed by militant atheism and a resurgent Islam Destined to become a classic Beyond Opinion is a touchstone that will affect Christians around the world

Pluralism and Particularity in Religious Belief Brad Stetson, 1994-09-30 Challenging commonly held assumptions in the field of religious studies the author argues that religious pluralism as a paradigm of religious belief is deeply flawed This work focuses particularly on the foundations of John Hick's influential articulation of religious pluralism and suggests its consonance with postmodernist criticism The critique of pluralism is followed by a defense of Christian exclusivism and its moral viability as a style of religious belief The comprehensive reference bibliography records the major works in the study of religious pluralism

The Possibility of Salvation Among the Unevangelised Daniel Strange, 2002 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul's metaphorical language of death in Romans 6:1-11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle's own insight into the meaning of Christ's death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer's death to sin by presenting Christ's death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ's death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam's sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment. In contrast, hope is presented in the context of burial. The believer's burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ's family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ's death, an act pictured in baptism. It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life.

Toward a Christian Theology of Religious Pluralism Jacques Dupuis, 1997. The results from a lifetime of study, reflection, and experience in both Europe and Asia is this comprehensive examination of Christian theological understandings of world religious pluralism. American Book Publishing Record, 1991. Eastern Influences on Western Philosophy A. L. Macfie, 2003. This Reader explores the extent of Oriental influence on European thought primarily in the period of the Enlightenment and the nineteenth century period of doubt and scepticism that followed it. It is the first Reader to bring together in one place a series of specific historical and textual studies of Oriental influence upon European thinkers. Deceived by the Light Douglas R. Groothuis, 1995. Groothuis searches Scripture for answers to questions about near-death experiences. Christianity that Counts Douglas R. Groothuis, 1994. Elenchus of Biblica, 1995. Missionalia, 2006. Contains abstracts of missiological contributions, book reviews, and articles. International Journal of the Sociology of Language, 1974. The Relationship Between Epistemology, Hermeneutics, Biblical Theology and Contextualization Douglas Welker Kennard, 1999. This volume explores the relationship between epistemology, hermeneutics, biblical theology, and contextualization through the eyes of contributors from a number of different fields. The Myth of Religious Superiority Paul F. Knitter, 2005. In this challenging book, the leading exponents of the idea that all religions are a refraction of a truth, no single tradition can exclusively reveal, discuss what to make of that conviction in today's world of interreligious strife. New in this book is the inclusion of authors from a variety of traditions including John Hick, Rita Gross, Arvind Sharma, Roger Haight, Dan Cohn-Sherbok, Mahmut Aydin. The authors try to make the case that the next step in interreligious interchange ought to be the development of a multifaith pluralistic theology of religion.
